GIRL KILLED WHEN AUTO RAMS CAR

Alta Mounts Meets Death and Sister Mabel and John Short Seriously Injured in Smash On 24th Street

After Striking Street Car, Machine Crashes Into Fire Hydrant and Telephone Pole; Driver Loses Control

Alta Mounts, 22, 461 Sixty-sixth street, was instantly killed, and her sister Mabel, 20, and John Short, 16, fifty-fourth street, were seriously and possibly fatally injured early today when the automobile in which they were all riding rammed a street car at Twenty-fourth and Filbert streets, and then crashed into a fire hydrant and a telephone pole, overturning and pinning the occupants beneath the wreckage.

ACCIDENT FOLLOWS PARTY AT HOME.

Shown who is employed by the Union Ice Company, suffered internal injuries, a possible fractured skull and cuts and bruises. He is not expected to recover. Miss Mabel Mounts sustained possible internal injuries and severe bruises and lacerations; doubt was also expressed regarding her recovery.

After his machine struck the Hollis street car, Wing lost control and it ran into a fire hydrant, several yards from the scene of the first collision, breaking the hydrant off at the base and a column of water shot up into the air several feet.

Wing and the Mounts sisters were taking short to work following a party last night at the Mounts' home. Wing was driving south on Filbert street. He struck the street car at the intersection of Filbert and Twenty-fourth streets where the car track crosses. The street car was in charge of Conductor F. H. Brooks and Motorman T. J. McCloskey.

TELEPHONE POLE CAUSE OF DEATH.

The driver of the automobile was temporarily taken into custody by Inspectors Louis Kirsch and Robert Goodwin, and taken to police headquarters, where he was questioned by the two officers and Night Captain of Detectives William Kyle. He told the authorities that he was driving at about thirty miles an hour and did not see the street car until he was unable to avoid hitting it. After the crash, he said, he lost control of his machine and it began its mad run on Filbert street.

Miss Alta Mounts was not killed nor were any of the occupants of the automobile injured until it struck the telephone pole and overturned. All of the occupants were pinned beneath the wreckage of the heavy car, and were extricated by the street car crew and removed to the emergency hospital, where it was discovered that Alta was dead.

Police stated that no action would be taken against the driver until the accident is investigated by Coroner Grant Miller and a jury in an inquest returns a verdict.

GIRL OF EIGHTEEN RUN DOWN BY AUTO.

Miss Helen Fuller, 18 years old, is recovering from injuries which she received when she was run down by an automobile. The accident occurred at Fifteenth street and Broadway. The machine was driven by Malcolm McCure, 1206 Franklin street. Miss Fuller was taken to the emergency hospital removed to her home, at 6407 Chabot road.

EASTBAY CITIES SEE MANY BOAS

Missing Snake Reported As Being Seen in Several Localities.

BERKELEY, May 18.—The Eastbay is seeing snakes this week. From San Leandro, Fruitvale, Oakland, Berkeley, Albany and Richmond, Leonard Keeler, son of the missing snake, is receiving telephone messages from persons who declare they have seen his six-foot boa constrictor, which escaped last week from the Keeler home in Claremont.

"It can't be my snake they're all seeing," young Keeler said today. "It couldn't be in so many different places at once. I think it's about time for another raid on Eastbay bootleggers."

EDITOR SAW SNAKE, BUT IT WAS DEAD.

At least one of those who reported having seen the missing snake had a good ally, however.

Second Bomb is Thrown At Building in Mexico City Where Recognition Conference Is in Session

Organized Plot Scouted By American Commissioner; Mexican Secret Service Promises Prompt Arrest

WASHINGTON, May 18.—(By The Associated Press.)—The bomb was hurled into the American embassy garden at the time of radical demonstrations in the streets of the city, in the course of which the demonstrators protested against the recognition conferences between the Mexican and American governments. It is assumed here that the outrage was the act of some radical fanatic.

MEXICO CITY, May 18 (By International News Service)

Second bomb was thrown at the American embassy in Mexico City today, according to reports received here. The first bomb was thrown at the embassy on May 17, and the second was thrown today. The embassy is located in the center of the city, and the bomb was thrown from a distance of about 100 yards. The bomb exploded, and the building was damaged. The American ambassador, Mr. Clegg, was not injured.

PEKING, May 18.—Chinese bandits are reported to have issued a call to disarmed and unpaid troops to join them in a revolution against the government.

The government does not meet the bandits' demands, the latter must wage warfare on the largest possible scale, a bandit proclamation is said to state.

It is reliably reported that the diplomatic corps has drawn up a memorandum declaring the Chinese situation as it stands at present does not warrant any step by the powers toward abolishing their extra territorial privileges.

SHANGHAI, May 18.—American and other foreign captives held by Chinese bandits are being held in a temple on the top of Paozoku mountain, and it is feared that a week or ten days must elapse before they are released, according to information received here today from Liyi Leihuan, former San Francisco correspondent.

The bandits converted the mountain top into a fortress. Leihuan, who is a newspaper man, was captured by the bandits, but escaped. He went from Shanghai to Tsingtao, not far from the bandit stronghold, to look up his friends, what he could, it was from that town he sent the message.

ONLY TWO DAYS' FOOD SUPPLY FOR HOSTAGES.

According to latest reports, the prisoners had only two days' food supply. The only water came from a small spring at the foot of the mountain, which yields a gallon an hour.

The prisoners sleep in the temple doors. The weather on the mountain is very hot.

There is considerable discomfort. Negotiations for the release of the prisoners are deadlocked. The officials are charged with making only a pretense at a settlement. The regular troops have not been withdrawn, although the government representatives promised the bandits that this would be done.

They still surround the mountain, and it is feared that the Chinese government will not release the prisoners until the bandits are completely defeated.

Carl Crow of the American Chamber of Commerce of Shanghai, and Leihuan organized an "express service" to get daily ration through the bandit lines to prisoners.

It is possible the bomb makers may have attempted to impede the work of the commissioners, but officials said the conference would continue as though nothing had happened.

One whole side of the consulate building was blown out. The explosion took place about 2:15 a. m. Investigation showed that the bomb evidently had been crudely constructed with a lighted fuse.

It is believed the bomb had been thrown into an office on the ground floor of the building from an automobile. The building is in a state of alarm.

Execution of All Foreigners Scheduled Unless Troops Withdrawn. Ultimatum to Peking Government Warns

Outlaws Broadcast Call For Country-Wide Revolution; Town Raided by Bandits; Food Supplies Are Low

TIENTSIN, May 18.—(By The Associated Press.)—The Chinese bandits on Wednesday shot five of their Chinese captives and "would not hesitate one moment about shooting the foreigners," according to Marcel Berube, one of the prisoners paroled by the brigands.

SHANGHAI, May 18.—(By The Associated Press.)

American and British captives of the Shanghai bandits will be shot next Tuesday if the Chinese troops are not withdrawn, according to the "final ultimatum" of the bandits, broadcast from the mountain stronghold today by Marcel Berube, a Frenchman, one of the prisoners, who was released for the purpose.

SHANGHAI, May 18.—(By The Associated Press.)—Chinese bandits last night attacked Tientsin, a town 50 miles north of Peking, according to a report received here today. One person, the station master, was kidnapped and is being held for $50,000 ransom. Late reports indicate the outrage apparently was perpetrated by an isolated band of brigands and had no connection with the operations of the large outlaw force responsible for the Suichow train raid.

War Threat In Europe Grows

Conflicts of growing threats of nations of Europe, including Britain, Russia, France, Germany, Turkey, Greece and the Balkan powers, bearing out yesterday's despatches that another general war is threatened. Among today's developments are:

1.—The Turks and Greeks have failed utterly to reach any agreement regarding reparations in Asia Minor.

2.—Leaves have been cancelled in the Turkish army, in fear of renewal of hostilities.

3.—Russia is being threatened from many sources. Britain has demanded full compliance with her ultimatum; relations with Turkey are strained; Poland, Rumania and France are menacing.

76 DIE IN FIRE PANIC; EXPLODING LAMP TURNS SCHOOL INTO INFERNO

Scores of Parents and Children Attending Commencement Exercises Trapped by Flames

FAMILIES ARE WIPED OUT

(By International News Service)

CAMDEN, S. C., May 18.—Seventy-six persons, many of them school children, lost their lives last night in a ghastly, tragic fire which swept through a country school six miles east of here.

They were burned, suffocated and trampled to death in a mad, terrified scramble for the one exit which led from the top floor of the flimsy wooden structure.

Perhaps a score of others are so badly burned they may die, as many who were successful in their frenzied dash for the stairway are suffering from injuries of varying degrees of seriousness.

The terrible tragedy occurred at what is known as the Cleveland school. Those who escaped told today the horrible details of a night of terror. Between 150 and 200 persons were gathered in the schoolhouse for graduation exercises. The schoolhouse is of the old-fashioned country wood type, with a stairway in the rear and lighted by kerosene lamps. It is located in a comparatively isolated community with no other houses or buildings near by.

The audience was made up of fathers, mothers and children, the latter dressed in their "Sunday best" for the biggest community event of the year.

About 10:30 p. m. the exercises had been completed and as the superintendent of schools was presenting the ribbon-bound diplomas to the graduates of the eighth grade, there was a terrific explosion. It came from a smoky kerosene lamp, swinging in the rear of the hall from the ceiling.

Burning oil was scattered over the entire back part of the big square room and flames appeared instantly, catching readily at the dry wood.

The only staircase was in the rear and almost before those in the room realized what had happened, escape was virtually cut off. The flames immediately surrounded the staircase. Those in the rear of the room dashed through the blinding smoke and jumped from the windows—it was only the second floor.

To safety below.

Those behind, nearest the platform and in the front seats of the hall, were not so fortunate. With no windows from the platform and the smoke and confusion growing worse every second, there resulted an awful terrified scramble for the stairs.

It was sheer panic and it paid the usual price of panic.

Women and children, gay in their white graduation costumes, were knocked down and trampled under foot and the interior of the hall became in a few minutes a screaming, maddening mass of horror-stricken people, intent only on one thing—escape. Some of those who escaped said later that the doors of the auditorium "opened the wrong way," and that a score of persons got jammed against a closed door and thus held up escape for many people.

The superintendent of schools, who at the time was in his arms, made a futile attempt to stem the tide of panic. He shouted that all could get out safely if they took their time, but his voice was lost in the screams of the women and children.

The superintendent and those of the graduating class, being furthest from the one stairway, are believed to have perished.

for it was a dead snake that he saw. Erwin F. Schneider, editor of a San Francisco newspaper, told Keeler that he saw the corpse of his snake last Sunday morning at Laurel avenue and Redwood road, in the hills above Fruitvale. Schneider said that he estimated the length of the snake, which was coiled, at about twelve feet. Keeler says his snake measures only six feet. The snake's progress will probably be from tree to tree, and from one chicken yard to another, snake experts, including young Keeler, believe. Snake of this variety, they point out, have been seen in trees, swinging themselves from one to another. They live on small animals, and have a special fondness for chickens.

Snake Saw Chance.
So Made Escape.

It was while he was allowing the snake to sun itself in a tree at his home at 121 Camino Real and The Highlands, that his pet disappeared, Keeler said. While he left the house, the snake was seen to have escaped into adjoining trees, and thence into the nearby woods. Keeler reported his surprise that the snake is non-poisonous, and that it is not yet large and strong enough to practice its peculiar method of warfare—that of strangling—upon a human being. The snake is described by its owner as black-and-yellow speckled, and about six and a half feet long. A brother to the missing snake almost the same in appearance, is being exhibited by Keeler at the Berkeley Merchants and Manufacturers' fair. The snake made by Keeler during a visit to Australia and has become a pet of himself and his sister, Miss Elsie Keeler, well known University of California student and amateur snake dancer.

lives they looked upon a scene that almost beggared description. The schoolhouse, a mass of ruins, around which stood weeping mothers, frantic fathers and wailing children, looking for their loved ones.

SCORE OF INJURED COVER GROUND.

There was a score of persons lying groaning on the ground, suffering from broken limbs and fractures suffered in leaping from the windows.

The darkness was lightened only by the ruddy glow of the smouldering fire, and in the intense heat and sound and terrible confusion, the work of finding out who had escaped and who had died continued throughout the night.

Groups found a weeping, blackened crowd of men still working feverishly. At 8 o'clock they had succeeded in pulling 74 bodies from the ruins. The work of identification has not been completed because of the confusion and the stunned condition of those who escaped.

Several whole families, however, have been wiped out.

"There was no one to blame," said the chief of police here. "It all happened so quickly and the panic was natural."

All the victims were either graduates, students of the little school or parents and friends.

THREW WITH OUT OF OPEN WINDOW.

One man threw his wife bodily through an open window and then leaped after her. She was severely injured and he hurt his back in the leap. Afterward he blundered into the fact that the stairway door opened inward for most of the panic and deaths.

"Those nearest the platform pushed those ahead toward the narrow doorway," said Chief of Police B. G. Whitaker. "The jam, of course, became terrific, and then in some unexplained manner, probably because of the jostling and stamping, the door became closed and the people behind it pushed ahead into the door, keeping it closed."

"This left only the windows and they were soon choked."

"Also, the first explosion had scattered burning oil over a number of people near it, and then clothing immediately became a mass of flames. Between trying to fight the flames that were consuming them, and trying to get to the doors and windows, it can readily be imagined what a horrible inferno the place was soon turned into."

The Cleveland school community is made up of small farmers and mill operatives, and is similar to hundreds of other small communities throughout the south.

POLICE FORCES
INSTALLED AT SCENE.

The entire police and fire departments of Camden were on the scene this morning and restoring some semblance of order out of the chaos and disorder that stalked unchecked throughout the night.

The dead were blackened and puffed and identification in some cases will be difficult—a matter of elimination—as clothing was burned entirely away.

As fast as the bodies were pulled from the smoking ruins, they were laid in one long row on the grass of the schoolyard while weeping mothers and frantic fathers and terror-stricken children rushed up and down the line seeking to identify missing relatives.

It was a heartrending scene made doubly pathetic by the large number of children in that long black line.

MOST AWFUL SCENE IMAGINABLE.

"It was the most awful thing I have ever seen," said a witness.

But for the people all who were in the crowded little schoolhouse, could have escaped, the Rev. J. J. Johnson, pastor of the First Baptist church, of Camden, said today.

Rev. Johnson escaped uninjured when a spectator dragged him from the crowded doorway into which the frantic pupils and their parents had crowded. The minister's wife and little daughter escaped with slight injuries.

SERIOUSLY INJURED
TAKEN TO HOSPITAL.

A nurse at the Camden hospital told International News Service that five victims of the fire, all so seriously injured that physicians would not permit them to see anyone, were at the hospital. Seven or eight were taken to their homes, she said.

Thomas Humphries, assistant cashier of the Bank of Camden, still living at the Camden hospital, said he was not injured, but his recovery is doubtful, could not remember how he escaped the blaze.

"It was a nightmare from the time of the explosion. All I remember is the flare of the lamp and the wall of terror that went up."

accepted unanimously by the directors and it is understood several members, who were in sympathy with Miss Skeele's demands, were opposed to taking action which severed her connection with the association. The majority of the directors voted in favor of accepting the resignation at a meeting yesterday. It had been proferred about a month ago, but no action had been taken.

SECOND RESIGNATION ACCEPTED.

At yesterday's meeting, according to Frederick Kahn, a recently appointed director, a second communication was received from Miss Skeele and was accepted.

"I first tendered by resignation about a month ago," Miss Skeele said in discussing the matter, "because of the board's failure to approve plans which I believe are necessary and opportune for the association's betterment."

When it was not accepted at that time, I believed that they had decided to follow out these suggestions."

"It is merely a matter of difference of opinion," said Cavalier. "I may say that Miss Skeele's resignation was accepted regretfully. Miss Skeele has been advocating some changes in the organization, which the board feels are not possible immediately, and cannot be undertaken except by long and laborious procedure. She believes that these changes are necessary for the association's betterment."

while the directors think otherwise. "Rather than remain with the association and not be able to make the changes she believes are required, Miss Skeele resigned. Her resignation was entirely voluntary and the directors regret that it had to occur."

ACCEPTANCE VOTE NOT PUBLISHED.

Cavalier refused to make public the vote for acceptance of the executive secretary's resignation, but admitted that it was not unanimous.

Regarding her plans after she leaves the association, Miss Skeele would make no comment, other than to say that she contemplated taking up executive social work in New York. Cavalier declared that he understood that she had received several attractive offers from other cities, one of which was from New York with a larger salary and greater possibilities.

The most important change in the organization of the Associated Charities, which Miss Skeele believed was necessary, but which did not meet with the sympathy of the directors, was the matter of a larger staff.

"Oakland, in my opinion," said Miss Skeele, "has reached a point where it is necessary to have a well be afforded to widen the scope of the association's work, and develop it upon a much larger scale. The matter of obtaining a large staff should be acted upon at once and favorably, in my opinion, but the directors do not think this is possible at this time."

Miss Skeele has been executive secretary of the association for nearly four years.

SAN DIEGO GETS NEXT CONVENTION OF GRAND ARMY

Milner of Long Beach Named Chief of Department, As Previously Forecast.

MODESTO, May 18.—Thundering applause greeted the speaker representing San Diego, who yesterday invited the Grand Army of the Republic to hold its encampment for 1924 at San Diego. The invitation was accepted by unanimous vote.

When San Diego's representative promised that San Diego would try to outdo Modesto 100 per cent in hospitality, there were cries of "It'll have to go some to beat Modesto," and one veteran suggested that the speaker give a written guarantee that San Diego would surpass Modesto 2 to 1.

A telegram was received from Santa Rosa inviting the Grand Army to hold its encampment in that city in 1925 and a representative of San Francisco extended an invitation from that city to hold the encampment there in 1926.

FORECAST FULFILLED ACCORDING TO FORECAST.

James R. Milner of Long Beach was elected by acclamation the president of the department of California and Nevada of the Grand Army of the Republic at the session here yesterday. There was no opposing candidate and no opposing vote, but comrades from all parts of the auditorium vied with each other in seconding the nomination of Milner, in expressing their appreciation of his past services, and in enumerating his qualifications for the highest office which it was in their power to bestow.

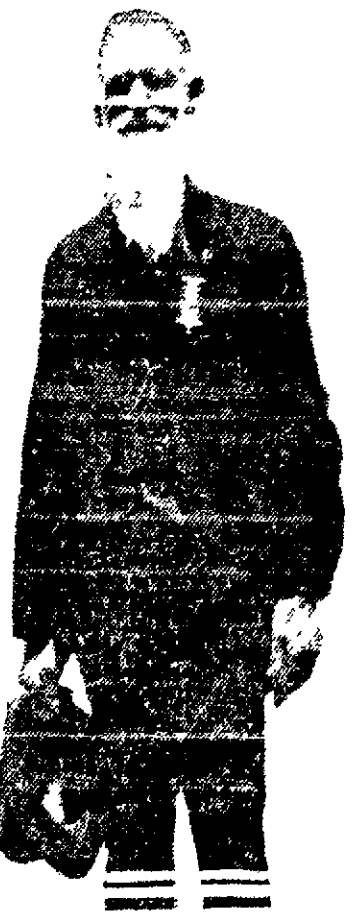

A. E. Vest of San Diego was elected senior vice-commander, defeating A. W. Calkins, also of San Diego.

Mrs. Alpha G. Daul of Oakland was elected department president of the Women's Relief Corps, which also chose Mrs. Gertrude Galloway, waiters of San Diego senior vice-president, and Mrs. Belle Donovan of San Francisco junior vice-president. Mrs. Lou Tripp of San Jose was elected treasurer.

Mary E. Copping of Pasadena was elected department president of the Ladies of the G. A. R. She is the wife of George W. Copping, who served more than four years in the Civil War. Mrs. Maud De Long, president of the U. S. Grant Circle of San Diego, was chosen senior vice-president. Other officers elected were Emma W. Hale of Oakland, junior vice-president; Abby A. Powiss, member of the George H. Thomas Circle of San Francisco, treasurer.

G. A. R. Veteran

JAMES ANDERSON of Oakland, 82-year-old bridegroom, who is having his fifth honeymoon while attending the Grand Army encampment and reunion at Modesto this week.

Bessie Johnson, president of George H. Thomas Circle, San Francisco, chaplain, and Harriet C. Finch of Seven Pines Circle, San Francisco, councillor.

RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED.

The Sons of Veterans Auxiliary elected the following officers: Emma Connors of Pasadena, president; Jennie Gilliland of Riverside, vice-president; Mamie Deems of Los Angeles, Elsie Donnel of Inglewood and Cora Dunster of Los Angeles, council; Hatfield Jordan, San Jose, chaplain; Ida Easley, Modesto, patriotic instructor, delegate to the national encampment at Milwaukee. Alice Haney Denske, Pasadena, and Ella McLough, Long Beach.

Among the resolutions presented by the resolutions committee and approved was one expressing the sentiment that discriminations have been made in the pension laws and in the administration of them that have worked great injustice, whereby many deserving ex-soldiers of the Civil War have failed wholly in getting the recognition that their services have merited, and endorsing the efforts of Senator Eustace and others who are trying to bring about the passage of a more generous bill for the regulation of pensions in the coming session of Congress. In this resolution they expressed the opinion that every Civil War

Policeman Shot in Arm By Prowler

SAN FRANCISCO, May 18.—Shot by a prowler whom he was attempting to handcuff in an occupied apartment at an early hour today, Special Policeman David Bush, of 4123 Twentieth street, was shot in the right arm. His wound is not serious. Bush heard a door slam in a new building on Hyde street, near Golden Gate avenue. He entered and came upon a man in one of the rooms. Questioned, the prowler said he had Bush commanded him to throw up his hands. Taking his handcuffs, the policeman advanced. "If you lay a hand on me, I'll shoot you," whispered the man, and fired. The bullet struck Bush in the right arm and the intruder dashed for safety. The officer followed and fired three shots at the fleeing man.

The man jumped into a waiting auto and fled. Bush emptied his pistol at the disappearing car. The machine was later found abandoned. It was an Oakland machine and had not been reported stolen.

BRITISH NAVY'S PLANE CARRIERS LATEST DESIGN

Have Landing Facilities to Make Large Aerial Fleets Possible

LONDON, May 18 (By Associated Press)—Every building in London with a flat roof has become a potential airbase by reason of the invention of apparatus to facilitate the landing and taking off of a plane from the ocean of the city's a craft-carriers. The business plan of the future English air experts predict, will ride in an elevator to the roof of his home and leave by airplane. The invention which will make this possible will enable every navy of the future to put to sea with not only a vast number of airplanes flying boats and seaplanes but its own armadas and warships on these waters.

VESSELS CONVERTED
Already some vessels have been converted into aircraft-carriers by the United States, Great Britain and Japan, but the British admiralty has laid down plans of this kind which are held to be better than those of any other power. They have not only been provided with airplane landing facilities, but are as well equipped to carry out repairs as is any ground station of the Royal Air Force.

The decks of these aircraft-carriers are entirely free of all obstructions. The funnels for carrying away smoke are set on the starboard side. These huge aircraft-carriers in the Dardanelles threw a fright into the Turks, who believed them to be strange monsters of the deep.

HUGE ELEVATORS
In the new type of aircraft-carrier there are two decks connected by huge elevators. The upper is the air deck, and the lower is equipped with work-shops for carrying out repairs. There are also supplies of necessary spare parts ranging from a propeller to a complete engine, all ready for instant use.

The flying deck is fitted with a searchlight and a landing-light tower which makes it possible for a machine to land at night. The light illuminating the deck of the vessel and the surrounding water. There are also cranes for hoisting on board flying boats which need repair.

It is now possible for the fastest machines to land with safety on the deck of an airplane carrier. An arrangement of nets brings the airplane to a standstill without damage and a machine which attains a speed of three miles a minute can land in a distance of not more than 40 feet.

Molders Arrange Annual Celebration

RAILROAD TRIP IS NECESSARY FOR EARLY FRUIT

Fruits of the season have come in from the Imperial valley and are being served on the Southern Pacific dining cars.
"Is that so?" Looks like we'd have to buy a railroad ticket to enjoy the early crop though, doesn't it? Well, I guess it won't be long till they're on the market for all of us to buy.
"I hope not. And I'll thrust a happy tooth into any apricot that come my way. They surely are good. Since coming to California, I'm getting a lot of pleasure out of the fruit. The beginning of one season after another always find me ready."
"Then you've been eating strawberries, I take it."
"Living on them, and cherries, too. I never did see such fine cherries. And next comes the cots."
"Yes, and if you can't wait till they are on the general market, I take it you'll be taking a little trip somewhere on the S. P."
"No danger. Can't afford luxuries like that and still the rates are attractive enough. Gosh, I'd get kicked off for a hobo. I need a new suit so badly that the wife says she refuses to be seen out in public with me until I get a new one."
"Why put it off? Don't you know that Cherry's are open every day and you can get a new suit at 528 13th street and buy it on credit, too. Monthly payments will handle it for you." The lady's exclusive store is found at 528 13th street. Advertisement.

PROSECUTIONS PRESIDENT FOR FREE SPEECH AID

ells Harding He Plans to Make Another Attempt to Address Strikers.

PASADENA, May 18.—(United Press.)—Calling upon the President of the United States to appoint an officer of the United States army to protect him in another attempt to address the strikers at San Francisco, recently arrested for speaking at San Pedro, today sent the following telegram to the White House:

"Washington, D. C.

"At cable suggestion of International Arbitration, Berlin, I appeal to you for assistance in preserving representative form of government at Los Angeles Harbor. I ask you to send an officer of the United States army with me to the harbor to vindicate right of citizen to read the constitution of the United States on private property, with permission of owner.

"Local Chief of Police has practically rescinded constitution and declared martial law. In presence of many witnesses, including two attorneys, he ordered us to drop that constitution stuff."

"I understand that you really believe in the constitution. I await your immediate action. Please wire decision at my expense.

"UPTON SINCLAIR

Sinclair received the following cablegram today from the International Workers' Aid of Berlin:

"Learn with distress of your imprisonment. Have you appealed to President Harding? Brother sympathy."

Sinclair replied:

"Don't worry. Customary in America."

WILL TALK ON ITALY.

Michael Cimbalò will speak on "The Italian Fascist" at the Oakland Open Forum meeting at Native Sons' Hall, Eleventh and Clay streets, Sunday night. Cimbalò is a San Francisco attorney, and spent the last year investigating economic conditions in Italy, where he met the leaders of the new movement.

Hobby's Method.

"How is your husband about footing the bills?" asked one Eastbay woman of another.

"If they're too big he comes down flat-footed and refuses to pay," was the reply.

More Convenient, Too.

A Piedmont woman who is in the habit of instructing the servants that she is "not at home" to certain of her acquaintances, says she does so because it's more blessed to give excuses than to receive callers.

Greatly Diluted, Though.

A booze ship was sunk in the Atlantic. An Eastbay resident rises to remark that Davy Jones must have plenty of liquor in his locker.

Wife Denies Man's Charges.

Denying allegations made by George A. Martin in his divorce suit that she held telephone conversations with other men, took automobile rides and otherwise associated with them, Mrs. Mae J. Martin charges him with regular week-end sprays and abusive treatment in a cross-complaint filed today.

Desertion Charged to Broker.

George H. Vose, formerly a real estate broker at 5333 Broadway and now in the southern part of the state, is sued for desertion in January, 1922, in a complaint filed today by Mrs. Helen I. Vose.

Wife Charges Contempt.

Contemptuous treatment by Vernon Pugh, who owns an interest in the Occidental Plating Works of San Francisco, is alleged by Mrs. Regina Pugh, in a divorce suit in which she also charges him with desertion. The hotel bar would like to be rid of her, and frequently came home intoxicated, when he would threaten to beat her and call her names.

Catholic Retreat

Aroused Interest

The retreat being held at St. Elizabeth's church, Fruitvale, for boy parishes has aroused much interest in Catholic churches. Father Titus, O. F. M., of Chicago is directing the retreat.

Daily this week holy mass has been said at 5:45 a. m., followed by a short sermon.

On June 1, a communion and breakfast will be held. On Sunday evening at 7:45, there will be a solemn close, papal blessing and solemn procession with the blessed sacrament.

This evening's subject at 7:45 will be "Forgiveness." On tomorrow evening Father Titus will speak on "Danger Ahead."

WOMAN RETURNS AND INTERRUPTS THIEF AT WORK

A burglar who had broken into three houses in the same neighborhood was surprised by Mrs. O. Harbaugh while he was ransacking the home of her sister, Mrs. M. Edelman, 269 Thirty-eighth street.

She heard a noise in one of the bedrooms and when she walked into the hall she was confronted by the burglar.

"Keep still or I will shoot," said the burglar, as he covered Mrs. Harbaugh with his revolver.

The burglar jumped out of the window and made his escape. He is described as being a blonde and about 30 years old. He took jewelry valued at $50.

Mrs. Harbaugh resides at 269 Thirty-eighth street.

The flashlight which was stolen from the Harbaugh home was found on the front steps of the home of L. E. Hawk, 3322 Cerrito avenue. A small amount of jewelry was taken from the Hawk home.

The home of J. P. Orsman, 3319 Cerrito avenue, was also broken into. Jewelry valued at $50 was taken by the thief.

In each case the entrance to the house was gained by jimmying the side window.

Things they Ask the Tribune

BUREAU OF INFORMATION

"Will you kindly publish in your paper whether Lake Merritt is artificial or natural? In our class this is an argument pertaining to this question. Some say it is artificial and some say it is natural."

Lake Merritt was originally a sort of swamp. It was dredged, and flood gates into the estuary built, allowing it to be supplied from the water of the estuary.

"What can I do to my hydrangea plant to make the blossoms blue instead of pink as they generally are?"

To tint the hydrangeas take a half pound of lump strich, break this up into small pieces about the size of a hazel nut and mix with the soil about the plant. The flowers of the hydrangea are quite susceptible to the influence of differently composed soils.

"What is amber and how did it originate?"

Amber is a fossil resin of vegetable origin. It is usually of a pale yellow color, sometimes reddish or brownish; it is sometimes transparent, sometimes almost opaque. It occurs in roundish, irregular lumps, grains or drops; it has a perfect conchoidal fracture. It is slightly brittle, emits an agreeable odor when rubbed, melts at 600 degrees F. and burns with a bright flame and a pleasant smell.

"What is the date of the Cherry Festival in San Leandro?"

June 4 to 9.

"What is the meaning of the word Sacramento and how did the city get its name?"

Sacramento received its name from the river, which, following the usual custom of the Spaniards, was christened first. It was named in honor of the Holy Sacrament.

"What is the Parcel Post rate to the Hawaiian Islands?"

The Hawaiian Islands are in the eighth zone and the rate is 12 cents a pound for each pound or fraction thereof on all parcels weighing more than 4 ounces, except books, seeds, cuttings, bulbs, roots, scions and plants, weighing 4 ounces or less.

NEW SPEEDWAY RECORD IN EAST

Famous Pilot Establishes a Mark at the Indianapolis Track in Practice.

By AL G. WADDELL.
(Former Member A. A. A. Contest Board.)

SPEEDWAY, INDIANAPOLIS,
Ind., May 18.—William Jennings Bryan and Ralph De Palma shared the headlines in Indianapolis today. Bryan was high man in the balloting for moderator of the Presbyterian church up in Tomlinson hall, and De Palma established a new speedway record with his 122-inch Packard Special.

Dr. Hugh K. Walker of Los Angeles, sponsored by Dr. John Willie Baer of Pasadena, Dr. Frank Sil-ley of Oakland, and Dr. J. C. Reed of San Francisco, was among the outstanding delegates to the general assembly, who fell before the many-times presidential candidate.

Harry Rantz, Tommy Milton,
Cliff Durant and Signor Martin Dealsaga were among the speed kings whose best marks were swept aside by De Palma in his tiny blue Packard racer.

Circling the 2 1/2 mile course in 1 minute 27 3/5 seconds, which is an average of 103 miles an hour, De Palma's name was immediately switched from the dark horse list to that of outstanding favorite for the 500 mile race, May 30. His speedy lap, made in the first workout on the course gives him the track record for 122-inch cars.

While De Palma was receiving the congratulations of his friends and spectators in the stands were according him a great ovation, Joe Hoyer, his teammate, went out to do his stuff.

Hoyer did not take his Packard Special on to the course, but rolled out in De Palma's old Duesenberg 183 job, the car used by De Palma in the California races last session.

RACE TIME.
Hoyer warmed up for a few laps and then reeled off a loop in 1 minute 25 1/5 seconds. This breaks all former track records.
It is an average of just a fraction under 106 miles per hour, and the fastest time ever made here before was 105 miles an hour, done by Rene Thomas with the 300-inch French Ballot.

Harry Hantz on his Durant Special had started the speed fans when he looped the course in 1 minute 1-5 seconds clipping a fifth of a second off Tommy Milton's best lap, which had stood as a track record up to this afternoon. Hantz was elated over the speed of his car and announced that he would be faster just as soon as he got used to the light near. It was while he was talking to his teammates, however, that that De Palma rolled out in the new Packard Special amid the cheers of the speed followers who daily pack the stands, paying for the privilege.

When De Palma was through the Frenchmen shrugged their shoulders and went back to work on their Bugattis with the hope that they could get them just a little faster. The German trio, Lautenschlager, Sallor and Werner, kept their hands in their pockets and leaning back against their of days gone by, squinted their eyes and shook their heads wisely.

Tomorrow afternoon the Germans are to be out for the first time and there will undoubtedly be a great crowd on hand to watch their American speed debut. There have been many tales told of the great speed bid under the hood of the Mercedes Special.

After the showing of De Palma today it is generally agreed that the Germans will have to be very very fast to spoil a great American whole hour this afternoon trying to figure out how many trucks

Lautenschlager, Sallor and Werner would need to transport their wealth after it had been turned to marks, provided they finished one, two, three. After waiting for a long time he gave it up and said he would get Cliff Durant to figure it out in the morning as young Durant was better at figures than he ever expected to be. Guy Hall, formerly of Los Angeles and erstwhile a member of the team who is now at McCook field, is to be in Eddie Hearn's pit on the day of the race and he brought over a safety belt for the veteran Eddie to try out in practice.

The drivers are all finding it difficult to keep the tiny 122-inch speedsters on the course and absolute practice they are battered and bruised as if they had been playing football. Cliff Durant was not out for practice today as he was called over to the Durant plant at Muncie for a conference with his father who arrived today at noon from New York. His absence a corps of upholstery experts were busy putting in new cushions for the boss of the Durant crew. Up to today it was predicted that the race would be slower than last year. The reason for this assumption was the fact that no lap prizes were up this year. This was changed today, however, when a committee of Indianapolis citizens went out to raise $20,000 by private subscription to be given to the leader of every lap. This would be every lap to the man in the lead, and makes it possible for a driver to get a good financial break if he leaps and speeds up the race only to fall by the wayside.

At 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon the chairman of the lap-prize committee announced that he had raised almost $5,000, and that the money was rolling in faster than he could count it. This means a fast race, and there is every possibility of the teaming into commander to appoint a committee attempts to draft a bill to be presented at the next legislative session which makes illegal the holding of automobile races, sporting events or amusements for gain on Memorial Day.

Durant also announced that another resolution was passed by the G. A. R. veterans condemning Governor Warren T. McCray for his stand on the race measure this year.

MUSIC DIRECTOR OF FOX THEATER BEGINS ACTIVITY

Arrangements Are Already Under Way for Orchestra Features.

Gerardo Carbonara who has been appointed musical director for the new Fox Oakland theater, which is rapidly nearing completion, has arrived in this city and is now making arrangements for the orchestra assembly that will be featured at the motion picture theater.

Carbonara, who is a violinist and pianist, has studied in Milan, Vienna and Naples and has toured the musical centers of Europe.

With the opening of the new theater he plans to present a new type of interpretation of what he terms "the silent opera" through the use of musical scores whose general class will be that of the classics. In addition to personally conducting the orchestra, he will be the score for the more elaborate presentations that are planned for the new theater in connection with the orchestra.

I. D. E. S. To Stage Annual Festival

SAN LEANDRO, May 18.—Final celebration of the Holy Ghost here dated for tomorrow and Sunday, May 19 and 20, by the Alvarado street lodge of the I. D. E. S. The celebration will be carried out by Portuguese people, to whom it is an annual celebration in honor of the time that Queen Isabel pledged her crown to feed her starving people.

The fete will start Saturday morning at 10 o'clock at the I. D. E. S. lodge headquarters, Alvarado and Antonio streets. This will be followed by a grand night dance. The most elaborate set of fireworks has been obtained, the crowning feature of which is a piece made especially to display the head of Queen Isabel in the air in colors, surrounded by stars.

Sunday morning at 10:30 a parade will take place, the line of march being from the lodge headquarters, down Davis street, through the principal streets of San Leandro, to St. Leander church where services will be held. In returning from these services a parade will also be given leaving the church, marching up Ward street to Washington down to Davis, thence to the Holy Ghost grounds.

Here the Holy Ghost Queen will be crowned. Miss Imelda Sinas is to be crowned as queen this year. She will wear a gold silver crown brought from the Azores Island for the purpose, and the wand she is to carry has been especially made for the celebration.

Those in charge of the celebration

as follows: Frank C. Vargas, M. A. Silva, Joseph Fields, George J. Phillips, Manuel Phillips, Manuel Agrella, Manuel Furtado and Tony Phillips.

Lodi To Begin Chamber Drive

SAN LEANDRO, May 18.—Stories of the splendid way that San Leandro went over the top in the recent Chamber of Commerce reorganization drive are being broadcast and bringing many compliments to San Leandro, according to J. M. Silvey, field representative of the California Development association, upon his return last night from Lodi. He finds that many other towns have watched San Leandro, and are commenting favorably.

At Lodi the Development association is planning to put a Chamber of Commerce upon its feet. This is the first time a real organization of such a body has been tried, and Silvey reports prospects are good. He was the speaker at the initial banquet and will start the drive there June 4. Committees are at work already.

Ballots are coming in regularly for the primary nominations of the San Leandro body, and will be opened Monday noon.

REFORESTATION UP TO STATES, SAYS FORESTER

Head of the Government Department Tells S. F. Audience Cooperation Needed.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 18.—The national government can legislate for only the 17 per cent of the forest areas which it controls and it is necessary for the states to legislate for the remaining 83 per cent, Col. William B. Greeley, chief forester of the United States, said last night in an address before the Commonwealth club.

Almost three hundred, including Sierra club members specially invited for the occasion, listened to the speakers, who included Col. William B. Greeley, chief forester, U. S. forest service; Dr. George C. Pardee, Paul G. Radington, district forester; Walter Mulford, director of the division of forestry, University of California; M. B. Pratt, state forester, and Walter D. Woodruff, managing editor of Sunset Magazine. Judge W. H. Waste, president of the club, presided.

"The 17 per cent of timber area that the government controls is only a drop in the bucket when it comes to meeting the demand for lumber and paper," Col. Greeley said. "Proper and adequate timber growth can only be brought about through adequate co-operation between the government and the states."

"We cannot make a move toward the reforestation of private holdings in California without the aid of the state. The states, in the long run, are going to do a great deal more than the federal government in solving the reforestation problem."

Dr. George C. Pardee, former governor of California, who recently resigned as head of the state forestry board, told the meeting that Governor Richardson's action in decreasing the appropriation for lighting forest fires might be compared to the reduction of the fire department in any city by 40 per cent "to save money."

"Already over 2,000,000 acres, unless the state makes provision

TABLET DESIGN FOR MEMORIAL IS COMPLETED

Orpheum Theater Contest Is Won by Sculptor From Minnesota State.

The nation wide contest for a design for a memorial tablet for the tomb of Sarah Bernhardt, conducted by the Orpheum in conjunction with the Tribune, ended today with the announcement that Fred P. Humphrey, a young sculptor of Minneapolis, is the winner of the first prize.

The competition was conducted in all parts of the country simultaneously by the Orpheum circuit, which introduced the "Divine Sarah" to vaudeville some years ago. The local Orpheum in collaboration with the Tribune, sent a number of designs to be judged.

The prizes were awarded by a committee of judges composed of M. A. Barthelmy, Benjamin H. Marshall, Leroy Taft, Mrs. John Alden Carpenter and Mrs. Rockefeller McCormick.

The winning design is called "The Call" and shows an angel in ascent, calling a great genius upwards from the earth while the Drama and the World are shown in the foreground, kneeling and grief-stricken.

The winner received the first prize of $250 and a second prize of $100 went to William Bloom, a young Chicago artist, whose design evoked much comment.

The winning design will be cast in bronze and placed on the tomb of the great actress in Paris as America's contribution to the world's appreciation of her art.

Luncheon Planned By Welfare People

On Saturday of this week, May 19, a luncheon is to be given at the Hotel Bellevue, San Francisco, at 12:30, for the Child Welfare Research Station organization. Four-minute talks will be given by men and women prominent in the State. Discussion open to all present will follow.

FINE IDEALS ARE AIM OF NEWEST BUSINESS BODY

Mutual Business League Files Incorporating Papers in Oakland.

Expressing altruistic ideas for a world-wide business organization, the Mutual Business League of the World, with several well-known Oakland men as its directors, has filed incorporation papers with County Clerk George Gross.

The objects of the organization as expressed in the incorporation papers read as follows:

"To promote and foster a spirit of fellowship, reciprocity and mutual aid in business circles; to raise and maintain a higher standard of integrity, fairness and square dealing in all walks of business and professional endeavor, and generally to foster and propagate a community interest and spirit of friendliness between business men and associations in California and in all States of the Union as well as in foreign countries."

"To promote and foster citizenship duties, loyalty to country and stronger and higher ideals of service to God, State and fellow man."

"Other declared objects are to promote the idea that boys and girls are the greatest asset of this country and that every measure should be taken to promote their education."

The organization is not capitalized, but will grant charters to branch organizations all over the world. It is set forth, the members to pay dues as stipulated by the rules and by-laws. The organization will have its principal headquarters in Oakland.

The directors of the organization are: C. A. McGee, Lawrence G. Allen, John Corgiat Jr., C. W. Taylor Jr., Arthur G. Wheelock, William M. Peterson, Edwin T. M. Eckert, Harry C. Knight and Thomas F. Watson.

Charges Husband Squandered Money

Posing as a single man and a general good fellow, George E. Martin squandered his money associating with other women at dances, resorts and on "joy rides" until late hours, but when he was at home displayed a "grouchy, sulky and morose" disposition, charges Mrs. Bessie Martin in a divorce suit on file today.

When Martin returned home he would claim that he had been attending night school or playing pool with his employer, but this was not so, the wife avers. He would remain away from home until 2 or 3 o'clock in the morning on an average of three or four times a week, she says. They were married in Oakland, May 2, 1913, separated recently in Berkeley and have a child, Ernest, aged 2, of whom the wife asks custody and $50 a month alimony.

Beaten for Disloyalty, Gets Apology

NEW YORK, May 18.—William Lauser Werner of Lebanon, Pa., a post graduate student at Columbia university, was awaiting further apologies from college mates today before he decided what to do about the beating they gave him after they kidnapped him yesterday.

Apologies from three of the seven who abducted him because they construed as unpatriotic and disloyal a letter he wrote to The Spectator, a Lebanon newspaper, were in his hands.

The trio who apologized said their motives were "patriotic but without due consideration of the ethics involved." They are members, it is understood, of the reserve officers training corps.

The men took him out in the country where they beat him with sticks and barrel staves, after they had put him through a "disloyalty" or loyalty test to the nation.

Werner is a veteran of the Argentine and told his captors so. He also is an English teacher in Pennsylvania State college.

Some time ago groups of students jeered at a review of military training corps and officers training corps and Major C. W. Foot, the commandant, wrote to The Spectator characterizing the perpetrators as disrespectful to the college, the flag, constitution and the army.

Werner replied to Major Foot through The Spectator defending the students who jeered, concluding:

"The yelps of the local sensitive plants give me a deep seated pain. Someone should inform the major that the war is over."

ENGLISH WOMAN MARVELS AT U. S. SISTERS' TALKING

Going Strong After Ten Hours. She Finds; Thinks Them Nervous.

By A. MAUDE ROYDEN, Noted English Woman Preacher.
(Written for and Copyright, 1923, by International News Service.)
Miss A. Maude Royden, noted English woman preacher, who recently visited the United States, has written a series of articles for the International News Service, setting forth her impressions of America. The first of these articles is herewith presented, Miss Royden discussing American women.)

LONDON, May 18.—Shall I be forgiven if I pass very lightly over those attributes of America's women which are known to all the world? All who know anything know that they are able and efficient, witty and socially gifted, independent and self-reliant, without an atom of sex antagonism or self-assertion; capable of a delightful frank and gracious comradeship with men.

The American woman is as highly valued for her womanhood as the French woman, and far more generously respected as a human being. I can tell that she sometimes presumes on this and is selfish. I can't say I haven't met all the women in America. All I know is that those I have met are not like that. Perhaps all the others are like I don't believe it. I am inclined to think it is the criticism of women whose men—to tell the truth—have prompted the vice of selfishness and shake out a permanent claim in it. That is how things are in a good many cases in Europe.

NERVOUS, OVER-STRAINED.
But having said this, may I very respectfully say something on the other side. American women are increasingly nervous and over-strained. Much as I liked to admire them, I was sometimes impressed by their absence of repose.
They "rush" even more continually than their men do. I am rarely unpunctual and can affirm with certainty that, though I was traveling continuously and in trains whose schedules seemed to have been completely dislocated by the weather, I was never once late at a meeting or other engagement, except when my hostess made me so.
I was never able to move without being propelled or towed by one or more earnest American women who seemed unable to believe that I could move fast enough. I shot out of lifts, I rushed onto platforms,
I flew along passages and corridors, always with the anxious pressure of an arm or hand to hasten me. I could hardly greet a stranger without being pushed in his or her direction first. I thought this must be because my lameness appeared worse than it really is, but when I found my beloved secretary, six feet tall and athletic to boot, also hurried about, I marvelled.

UNTIRING TALKERS.
An American woman talks with her whole face, never ceasing when she has finished her sentence. I felt she must be exhausted after ten minutes' conversation. She was not. She was not exhausted after ten hours. At least it seemed
not. But I wonder.

Does not life ask too much of the American woman? Almost without help, she runs her house, looks after her husband and children, keeps up a high—an extraordinary—standard of cleanliness, order and efficiency in her home. Of course American women are the cleanest on the earth. Their houses are lovely to be in. Besides this, she belongs to a literary club, takes an active interest in public affairs.
It is a staggering achievement. She must have brains to do it. But her nerves?

John Quincy Adams, though one of the best Presidents the United States has ever seen, was not a popular one.

LIFE SAVED

at the point of death, health restored to the hopeless case. I felt she must be exhausted after ten minutes' conversation. She was not. She was not exhausted
after ten hours.
At least it seemed
not. But I wonder.

FIVE HIDEOUTS OF NEW UTILITIES DISTRICT TO MEET

Recently Chosen Board Will Organize for Work Next Week.

The first meeting of the directors of the Eastbay municipal utilities district, formation of which was authorized at the recent election, probably will be held next week. It was announced today by Marston Campbell, one of the five members of the board. The other directors are Mayor Louis Bartlett of Berkeley, Mayor J. H. Boyer of Richmond, Coroner Grant D. Miller of Oakland, and Councilman Al Latham of Alameda.

MOSQUITO, NOT CARNARVON

SAN FRANCISCO, May 18.—It was a mosquito bite, and not an avenging spirit that caused the death of Lord Carnarvon, according to E. S. Aldrich, writer, Egyptologist and the first American to enter the tomb of King Tut-Ankh-Amen. With his wife and his father, O. W. Aldrich, of Columbus, O., he is at the Plaza Hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. Aldrich entered the tomb of the Egyptian monarch the day following its opening by Lord Carnarvon. Aldrich translated hieroglyphics found in the tomb and noted as photographer and correspondent for New York newspapers.

"Bunk!" was his opinion of the theory that Lord Carnarvon had met his death by supernatural means, as the result of an ancient curse upon disturbers of the tomb. "It was a very matter-of-fact mosquito bite, which was neglected and developed into an acute stage of poison before being given attention," Aldrich said.

Directors have been found, by a canvass of the votes, to be valid. No definite plans have yet been formed for the business of the first meeting of the directors. Campbell said, outside of the regular routine business. This will include selection of a permanent chairman. The meeting will be held in the city hall.

BOY SCOUT CHIEF DIES. LOS ANGELES, May 18.—Arthur Lett, vice-president of the National Council, Boy Scouts of America, owner of the Broadway Department Store and recognized as one of America's leading merchants, died here early today after a short illness. He was 61 years old.

NAKI AND PEOPLE TO GREET WEEKS

Harrison S. Robinson, president of the Chamber of Commerce; A. S. Lavenson, and Mayor Frank Otis of Alameda were among the Eastbay members of a reception committee that met for San Diego today to welcome Secretary of War Weeks to the Pacific coast. Other members of the committee were: Harvey M. Toy, Captain Frank Ainsworth, Robert Newton Lynch and Lewis E. Haas, all of San Francisco.

Secretary Weeks will arrive in San Diego tomorrow. Next Tuesday the committee will escort him to the bay district, where he will spend several days. Upon his arrival here Weeks will be tendered a luncheon by the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce. The following day, Friday, May 25, he will be taken to the Presidio to attend a review of troops in his honor. Later in the same day the secretary of war and his party will be the guests of honor at a reception held by Major-General and Mrs. Charles G. Morton in their quarters at Fort Mason.

Girls Revert to Jungle, Says Missionary

CHICAGO, May 18.—American girls of tender years are going back to jungle standards so fast that missionaries returning from Africa are horrified to see the change. Paul Rader, president of the Christian Alliance Conference, declared in an address at the conference meeting which opened here today and is being attended by foreign missionaries from all parts of the world. Missionaries returning to this country are asked to find the change. "They are approaching the jungle standard. Little black girls under the tropical sun mature early and little American girls are maturing too quickly under the hectic influence of jazz and speed." The next generation will see old women in their twenties, he declared, unless the tendency is halted. The conference is seeking 1000 missionaries for work in Africa.

MRS. LESLIE CARTER IS COMING TO THE FULTON THEATRE ON SUNDAY!

(At Special Popular Prices)

MRS. CARTER SAYS:

"I am very glad, indeed, to be in Oakland, a city in which I have long desired to appear.

"It will be most pleasant to again star in my favorite plays—'The Circle,' 'Zaza,' 'The Second Mrs. Tanqueray' and 'Madam X.'

"Oakland is the first city in which I have ever played as a 'guest star' in repertoire. The prospect of staging these classics, before cultured and critical Oakland audiences, is a delightful prospect indeed to me."

MRS. LESLIE CARTER, the most distinguished of living actresses.

OBSERVE!

Mrs. Leslie Carter, a former David Belasco star, is esteemed the greatest actress in the world—easily the most famous and distinguished in two continents. Her most recent success in New York was "The Circle."

Mrs. Leslie Carter, with a company of New York actors in her support, will produce Somerset Maugham's play, "The Circle," at the Fulton Theater next Sunday.

Mrs. Carter appeared in "The Circle" in New York for more than a year at $3 prices—and seats there sold three months in advance. There was a reason.

Mrs. Carter played in "The Circle" at the Curran Theater in San Francisco last year, for a month, at $3.00 a seat—and crowded houses ruled each night.

Mrs. Carter has consented to appear at the Fulton Theater for the first time in her life, at "special popular prices" by special arrangement with Maude Fulton and Managing Director George Ebey.

Mrs. Carter's production of "The Circle" at the Fulton next week will be sumptuous, brilliant, a masterpiece—and it will make theatrical history in Oakland.

Mrs. Carter deeply regrets her inability to accept the scores of invitations to social affairs which Oakland society ladies have extended to her, in such generous measure, as she desires for the present to give her undivided attention to her four play productions at the Fulton—productions of "The Circle," "The Second Mrs. Tanqueray," "Zaza" and "Madam X."

'DAYS OF '49' WILL BE GIVEN AT 'THE HIGHTS'

Pageant of the Gold Rush Period Will Honor Memory of Joaquin Miller.

Oakland is adding one more interesting pageant to its list of door prizes Sunday, May 27, when Joaquin Miller's play "The Days of '49," will be produced at "The Hights," his home above Fruitvale, which is now the property of the city of Oakland.

Mrs. Joaquin Miller, the poet's daughter; Mrs. Joaquin Miller, the poet's widow; George Wharton James, lecturer, writer and intimate friend of Miller's, have leading roles in a notable cast which has recruited pioneers and descendants of pioneers in its lists.

Once again the characters which are outstanding in the romantic story of the gold rush days will live again on Oakland's slopes. Spanish dances and songs of the mining camps will be introduced as the play unfolds itself.

Dr. James will assume the role of the '49er, the principal character, with Dr. Rothberg impersonating "Lucky Tom Gully." Captain Johnson will be the captain of Vigilantes, Hal Boland and Tom Kellman are given interesting roles. Mrs. Henry Wetherbee will have an important part to play as Mrs. Devine. Mrs. John Tillman, known as Mildred Bellini, Juanita Miller and Mrs. Joaquin Miller will complete the personnel of women characters.

Dress rehearsals of the pageant which will commemorate the discovery of gold in California are being held at The Hights this week. Details of the production are being completed under the personal direction of Miss Miller and Miss Vera Sloan.

MANY AMERICANS VISIT BRAZIL

RIO DE JANEIRO, April 15 (By Associated Press).—Never in any previous year has Rio de Janeiro had as many North American visitors as in the last six months. In addition to full passenger lists on the regular steamers from New York, there have been several special tourist steamers in port.

In previous years almost all North Americans coming to Brazil were on business missions, whereas this year the majority have been sightseers. Visitors of this kind from other countries are extremely few compared to the North Americans.

The centennial exposition, which undoubtedly was the magnet attracting the tourists, has occupied but little of their time. After a few hurried visits to the exposition grounds, the visitors have given their attention to the city's many other attractions. Judging from their conversations while here, in the years to follow there will be many North American tourists in Brazil who previously had spent their leisure time in Europe.

Although the state of siege, originally decreed at the time of the military revolt last July, is still in effect, there is nothing to indicate this fact to the visitor, and he goes on his way without interference of any kind unless one of his cablegrams happens to be held up by the censor.

Last Could Illness Caught in Egypt

NICE, France, May 18.—(By Associated Press).—Friends of George J. Gould, the American financier who died at Cap Martin Wednesday, declared today his fatal illness originated in a cold caught in the valley of kings in Egypt, which he visited after the discovery of Tutankhamun's tomb. The cold persisted, pneumonia followed and with a complication of heart disease, caused his death.

METHODS USED IN SCHOOLS OF CITY EXPLAINED

Rotarians Told That Each Business Man Should Counsel a Boy.

Advisory schools employed in the Oakland schools to encourage boys toward a proper goal in life were explained to the members of the Oakland Rotary Club at their luncheon yesterday by Dr. Virgil Dixon, head of the bureau of research and guidance of the Oakland public schools.

All of the schools there are counselors whose duty it is to study the boys and to advise them in a fatherly way when it appears that their life work and aims are being obscured by ephemeral desires," said Dixon. "These teachers are not to the boys, and attempt to give them that mature companionship that has been found to be so essential for adolescent youths."

Dixon declared it to be the duty of every business man in Oakland to assume the responsibility for the counseling of some fatherless boy. Every boy needs the companionship of a man who can inspire him with ideals, said Dixon, and there are many boys in Oakland who are in need of such leadership.

FRESNO PEOPLE TO SEEK ESTATE

FRESNO, May 18.—Six heirs who will share in the $500,000.000 Springer estate on which is now situated the city of Wilmington, Delaware, reside in Fresno, it was learned yesterday.

Acting in concert, the heirs here are planning to send an attorney to the city of Wilmington, Delaware, to secure more than one thousand other heirs to the estate are assembling, to take legal steps to recover the property, which was bequeathed 39 years ago by the sons of the original Springer.

The Fresno heirs are: David Stewart, Mrs. Gertrude Purcell, Charles Stewart, Albert Stewart, A. P. Stewart and John Stewart.

Five of the foregoing are children of David Stewart, leading the legal battle for recovery of his share in the estate.

Stewart bases his claim on the fact that his grandmother is a daughter of Charles Christopher Springer, whose brothers made the long term lease that is now resulting in the nation-wide search for heirs to the estate.

In a conference this evening Stewart, with the other heirs, decided to send an attorney to Chicago. Whether this will be a local attorney or one from San Francisco had not been decided.

Ecuador's Capital Hit by Earthquake

QUAYAHUIL, Ecuador, May 18.—(By the Associated Press).—Two persons have been killed and many injured and much damage to property has been done by a strong earthquake in Guano and that vicinity, according to reports received from the capital.

Numerous buildings, including the government palace, the city hall, the cathedral, the astronomical observatory, the military academy, the railway station and hundreds of residences have been damaged.

The military academy has been abandoned owing to the dangerous condition in which the shock left it.

Litigation High, Lawyers Suffer

LONDON, May 18.—(By Associated Press).—The high cost of litigation in England continues to spell hard times for lawyers. People prefer to settle their disputes out of court before they find themselves up to the neck in costs, or submit their dispute to arbitration.

The lawyers get no sympathy in their financial troubles from the general public.

Once business, however, in the interests of justice, a lawyer is a chance to recover. Custom prescribes that he must be paid in advance. He has a cash payment for his first appearance, a stipulated sum for every additional appearance, and there is no limit on what he may charge.

Los Gatos Schools Are Consolidated

LOS GATOS, May 18.—By a vote of 119 to 72, the Hacienda districts, just south of here, were consolidated into a Union grammar school district at an election held this week. This result will make it possible to erect a splendid new school, which will make possible for the children of this district to enjoy all of the metropolitan school advantages. A bond issue for the sum of $70,000 will be held for this purpose in the near future.

SULPHUR IS BEST TO CLEAR UP UGLY, BROKEN OUT SKIN

Any breaking out or skin irritation on face, neck or body is overcome quickest by applying Mentho-Sulphur, says a noted skin specialist. Because of its germ destroying properties, nothing has ever been found to take the place of this sulphur preparation that instantly brings ease from the itching, burning and irritation.

Hero and Heroine Of Fire Peril Are Finally Wedded

CINCINNATI, O., May 18.—A romance begun fifteen years ago, when both were in danger of death as they battled a great fire, has culminated in the marriage of Miss Josephine Kesselman, modiste, and John A. Cameron, mounted policeman.

At the time of the Neave building fire in 1908, one of the big fires in this city, they were outstanding figures in the work of rescuing dozens of girls employed in the building. Cameron won a Carnegie medal and $1000 and the modiste was listed at fire department headquarters as a heroine.

That was their first meeting—the marriage took place in Chicago December 1, but was not revealed to friends until a few days ago.

CHAPLIN USED AS SCREEN BY BERLIN THIEF

BERLIN, May 18.—Wittenberg Platz, Berlin's Columbia Circle, has been the scene every night recently of a free show staged by an imitator of Charlie Chaplin. Chaplin's wide popularity among the Germans has made the antics of his impersonator responsible for gathering such crowds that traffic was well nigh blocked.

Shuffling about in Chaplin's characteristic fashion, his imitator would suddenly grab the nearest bystander to save himself from falling. The bystander would join in the general laugh, but nobody discovered until now why no hat was ever passed at the show.

Last night a man who had arrived home mysteriously minus his watch and chain after attending the entertainment, reported the performance wearing a miniature clock so constructed as to sound an alarm upon its removal from his pocket. Just after the entertainer seized this man in a false fall, the clock's alarm sounded, and the performer was exposed as a pick-pocket. He made his escape, however, into the Tiergarten and thence from the enraged spectators.

WON VET'S HEART WITTING COOBY WITTING JUDGE

CHICAGO, May 18.—A pair of woolen socks knitted during the war by Miss Lotta Fischer of this city for "some American soldier over there" brought the fair donor a husband.

When she was sending them away, Miss Fischer placed a slip of paper, bearing her name and address, in the toe of one of the socks.

Old Federation Board to Fete New Officers

By EDNA B. KINARD.

"Fetes" will be written to an interesting volume of club activities and a new chapter opened tomorrow when members of the retiring board of Alameda District, California Federation of Women's Clubs, entertain in honor of the incoming board at a luncheon at the Wild Duck Tea Room overlooking Lake Merritt. Mrs. E. L. Warner will formally take over the responsibilities of the presidency, which have been carried so efficiently during the past two years by Mrs. George A. Riggs, who has been elevated to the office of treasurer of the California Federation of Women's Clubs. Those who will be associated with Mrs. Warner on the executive board are: Vice presidents, Mrs. C. L. Dodge, Crockett; Mrs. E. C. Stewart, Stockton; Mrs. E. L. Warner, Alameda; recording secretary, Mrs. Carl Fry; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Ernest Hadden; treasurer, Mrs. Katherine Goodall; auditors, Mrs. L. L. Heimond, Mrs. Lee Jones, Lodi.

The women who have completed with remarkable success their task extending over two years under Mrs. Riggs' leadership are: Vice presidents, Mrs. E. L. Warner, Mrs. W. S. Montgomery, Lockport; Mrs. Lois Reed, Tuolumne; recording secretary, Mrs. Carl Fry; corresponding secretary, Mrs. J. V. Toland; treasurer, Mrs. C. L. Dodge, Crockett; auditors, Mrs. L. S. Stone, Stockton; Mrs. F. S. Cook, Brentwood; parliamentarian, Mrs. Annie Little Barry.

An executive board meeting at the Young Women's Christian Association over which Mrs. Riggs will preside will precede the festivities.

A guest room, attractively furnished and equipped with every comfort will be the gift of the Sigma Phi Epsilon Mothers' Club to the fraternity which has recently taken possession of its new house. To create the beautiful quarters, the mothers have arranged a bridge and whist party for Thursday afternoon, May 24, at the Deschamps-Messiah hall.

Mrs. C. E. Wilson, retiring president, and Mrs. R. E. Chandler, newly elected officer, will be assisted in receiving by Mrs. W. B. Ludlow, secretary-treasurer, Mrs. J. L. Scott, Mrs. T. C. Morehouse, Mrs. E. K. Kirkland, Mrs. J. A. Finkbein, Mrs. Isaac Dawson, Mrs. H. Barth, Mrs. L. L. Langan and others.

A brilliant benefit card party will assemble several scores of guests at the Piedmont residence of Mrs. George C. Coddington on Monday evening, May 21, at the home of Mrs. Grace Swift, treasurer of the organization. The educational and charity budget of the patriotic organization is claiming the assistance of the function. Mrs. Grace Swift, treasurer, chairman of the budget fund, and Mrs. Coddington are perfecting details of the elaborate function. Members of other chapters of the D. A. R. and of Sons of the American Revolution, are being invited to join the company of guests.

The annual meeting of Esperanza chapter will be held on Thursday, May 24, at the home of Mrs. Josephine M. Fernald, regent. Election of officers will precede the program arranged by Mrs. Emma Adams, Wadell, chairman of the Liquidation and Endowment Fund.

Mrs. Genevieve Wade Hatch has been elected president of the Monday Study Club of Berkeley, succeeding Mrs. C. H. Denman. Officers who will be associated with her on the newly elected board of directors are: Vice president, Mrs. R. R. Bennett; secretary, Mrs. J. P. Myers; treasurer, Mrs. J. A. Minasian; parliamentarian, Mrs. P. C. Gay.

The club, which devotes its programs to cultural subjects, concluded the season this week with an elaborately appointed luncheon at the Wild Duck Tea Room near Lake Merritt. Mrs. C. H. Denman, retiring president, presided as hostess. Mrs. C. A. Sweet was chairman of the day. The program was arranged by Mrs. Hatch. Mrs. A. J. Reed, Mrs. J. A. Minasian, Mrs. A. E. Gravit, Mrs. W. C. Cartell.

An original poem was read by Mrs. Sweet. Miss Esther Pine of St. Paul, Minn., contributed violin numbers. Reports were presented by Mrs. R. R. Bennett, secretary, and Mrs. P. C. Gay, treasurer.

Adjustment has been taken by the club with a new program for 1923.

A bridge luncheon at Hotel Whitcomb was the compliment which Mrs. H. J. Schuler of Berkeley, retiring president of Laurel Hall Club, offered the members of the board of directors who have served with her during the two years of her term. Covers were laid for Messdames Edward H. Kemp, Thomas Douglas MacMillan, P. M. Jones, Thomas White, Francis Krull, P. A. Palmer, E. L. Snell, H. E. Harris, Harry L. Dwyer, A. G. Stoll, George E. Townsend, Minnie Kessler and Miss Amelia Frappell.

Installation luncheon of the Oakland Club this week was a brilliant occasion, marking the close of the administration of Mrs. Fred E. Adams and the launching of a new administration under the leadership of Mrs. Henry C. Perry. Club members contributed the program. An original poem, "My Mother," was read by Miss Mary Lambert. Those who contributed numbers were: Mrs. Della Gifford, whistler; Mrs. George Coolidge, vocal; Mrs. C. P. Hale, reader; Mrs. Adams and other members.

At the Gamma Phi Beta breakfast yesterday the engagement of Miss Marian Allen, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. R. H. Allen of Tenth Avenue and Apple Street, was announced. The bride-elect has just received her degree from the University of California and has been prominent in many campus activities.

Charger was graduated this year from the dental school at the Alameda College.

At a card party given at the home of her parents, Miss Laura Carter, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. R. H. Allen, was announced. The bride-elect has just received her degree from the University of California and has been prominent in many campus activities.

Miss Potter Is Honor Guest At Bridge

Nearly half a hundred will be guests tomorrow afternoon at a luncheon and bridge which Miss Lucie Lyon will give at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Lyon, at the Vista Vista, in honor of two brides-elect, Miss Dorothy Potter and Miss Carol Badgely. Miss Potter is to wed William Henry Wiekling and Miss Badgely, Clare Hill in the fall.

This afternoon Mrs. Fred Warner was hostess at a luncheon and bridge in honor of Miss Potter at her home.

Miss Constance Osgood, daughter of Mrs. Frederick Osgood, will be hostess at a luncheon and bridge May 26 at her home in honor of Miss Sally Robbins, who is to wed Carlton Osgood. Places will be set for forty guests.

Thursday, Miss Robbins will share the honors with Miss Martha Gallagher at a luncheon to be given by Miss Martha Johnson, for which seventy places will be set at the home of the hostess.

One of the last farewell parties for Miss Eleanor Campbell, bride-elect of Rochelle Blair, is the luncheon and bridge to be given tomorrow afternoon by Miss Cecelia van Bokkelen at her home in the college city.

For Miss Charlotte Moore, Miss Elizabeth Preston entertained today at her home in Tunnel road for thirty guests, most of whom were members of the Gamma Phi Beta sorority.

At the Centerville Country club, Mrs. Sydney Burr Holman was hostess to 100 guests Thursday, bidding many of her friends from about the bay. The clubhouse, attractive in its appointments, was enhanced with floral decorations forming an arbor. Mrs. Holman was assisted in receiving by her sisters-in-law, Mrs. Lloyd B. Hunt (Evelyn Bain) and Mrs. Columbo T. Crenna (Marjorie Holman).

Miss Opal Baeus, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Smith Baeus, will be married to Julius C. Sturm of this city this evening. It will be a home service with only the immediate family present. After the wedding supper the bride couple will leave for the South on a wedding trip. Later their home will be established in Berkeley.

RETROTHAL TOLD AT TEA

The engagement of Miss Esther Stewart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Stewart of East Oakland to W. H. Pinkston, was made known recently at a tea given for Miss Mary Stewart, fiancée of Jack Scamell, by Miss Ruth Patrick.

Pinkston is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Pinkston. Both young people are from prominent families and are graduates of Fremont high school and attended the university. Pinkston is engaged in the shipping business in Oakland and is at present on a trip to New York and Washington, D. C.

The wedding will take place in the fall.

BRYAN DEFEATED FOR MODERATOR FOR EVOLUTION BY DR. WISHART

Failure Due to His Views On Evolution and Other Causes.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., May 18.—(By the Associated Press).—Dr. Charles F. Wishart, president of Western College, Wooster, O., yesterday was elected moderator of the general assembly of the Presbyterian church, defeating William Jennings Bryan on the third ballot.

The Moderator had led a field of four on the first ballot, and of three on the second, when he came within 15 votes of election, but after all other candidates had withdrawn, Dr. Wishart forged ahead, winning by 451 to 427, with 433 votes needed to elect.

Friends of Dr. Wishart based their campaign on the claim that an ordained minister was needed to direct the highly specialized work of the church, and on Bryan's views on the theory of evolution, holding that his position as leader of the fundamentalists would not be conducive to unity.

SUNNED HIMSELF

The three-time Democratic nominee for president declined to discuss his defeat. He sunned himself on a balcony during the two-hour fight.

Dr. Calvin C. Hays, the retiring moderator, opened the 135th assembly of the church with the annual sermon, after the delegates had partaken of communion. Approximately 500 are in attendance.

Will H. Hays, president of the Motion Picture Producers and Distributors of America, and former Republican national committee chairman, launched a campaign for a $2,000,000 addition to the endowment fund for aged ministers in an address before the first "popular meeting" of the assembly.

After the election of Dr. Wishart standing and speaking committees were appointed and the assembly adjourned.

Part of the morning session today was devoted to the centennial jubilee of Presbyterianism in Indianapolis. The Rev. Lewis S. Mather, the stated clerk, will report this afternoon on the centennial vote on overtures sent down to the presbyteries by the general assembly at Des Moines, last year, and also present the annual record, showing the death of 197 ministers during the year.

TWO CALIFORNIANS IN RACE

The four candidates nominated for moderator included two Californians, the Rev. Hugh E. Walker, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Los Angeles, and the Rev. Frank M. Sibley of Oakland, Cal., and Dr. Wishart and Bryan.

The Rev. Mr. Sibley withdrew in favor of his fellow Californian after the first ballot, but Dr. Walker also withdrew after the second, when his vote fell off despite Sibley's action.

Cuticura Heals
Bad Case Of Eczema
On Child's Face

"When my little girl was a few days old she broke out with a very bad case of eczema on her face. It was in little, white blisters, and kept getting worse, itching and burning so badly that she used to scratch her face until it bled, and then hard scales would form. She was very cross. She could not sleep at night and her face was disfigured."

"I sent for a free sample of Cuticura Soap and Ointment and it helped her. I purchased more and in about eight weeks she was completely healed." (Signed) Mrs. Geo. Harris, 603 E. 3rd St., Pueblo, Colo.

Cuticura Soap to cleanse and purify, Cuticura Ointment to soothe and heal and Cuticura Talcum to powder and perfume are ideal for daily toilet purposes.

GERMAN SOLDIER

EARNING HATRED

COBLENZ, May 18.—The most interesting figure in Coblenz at present is a French second lieutenant named Schaefer, a native of Alsace, who was a sergeant of the Sixty-eighth German Infantry Regiment, with headquarters in Coblenz before and during the war. Owing to his service with the German Telegraph Corps before the war he is thoroughly familiar with Coblenz and with the various circuits of both the telephone and telegraph.

Since the occupation of the telegraph and telephone offices here he has been the "big mogul" in ordering the disposition of the occupying troops, the location of hidden materials and in forcing out "subversives" to the outside. He is now as popular as yellow fever with the Coblenzers. Indeed, his name is on top of their "black list." He joined the French army in 1912.

CURTAIN

CALLS

"FAREWELL to the flapper and hello to the natural girl!" Florence Ziegfeld, authority on feminine pulchritude, gave vent to the above "other" day when he concluded the self-imposed task of giving the double-o to some 600 girls on the stage of the New Amsterdam theater in New York with the hope of securing eighteen beauties.

"The greatest curse of the passing flapper," said Ziegfeld, "was the 'lip-stick,' the rouge and the face powder. The flapper's nose had to be ghastly white and her cheeks were painted bright red. She was quite the antithesis of the natural girl. Everything went into make-up."

After looking over these young ladies who applied to me to join the 'lollies' all of them young and inexperienced, I have concluded that the girl of today has gone back to nature. She depends on the complexion God gave her. Most of these girls put their hair in the middle and drapes it over the tops of their heads. They impress me as natural and not artificial."

TWENTY SEASONS
AGO TODAY

Idora Park opened yesterday featuring a scenic railway and "The Great Coal Mine."

"We are confronted by an era of sheer beauty in our girls and women. The flapper has gone for good. I hope and hoped for a long time. I have always considered the chorus girl the most maligned person in the world, but present day chorus girls are certainly much superior to the girls of other years. To find the perfect type we want to examine each year of girls. They are graded and regarded until we have all but 1000 eliminated. Then we take these and make them do a dance step several hundred at a time, and so select and eliminate in the end only about one per cent survive the tests."

well rounded shoulders, well shaped calf, small feet and small ankles. And her legs, above all, must not be hollowed out from the knees up. That is the kind the American public wants and we comb the beauty market for them."

And yet, what we are civilized and the buying and selling of feminine slaves is not being done."

Something substantial in the way of a memorial has been planned by Jane Cowell, and among the first to rally to the cause has been Henry Miller, ever at the advance of things that work for the good of the theater. So on May 28, Miss Cowell and Miller will donate their share of the receipts toward the memorial fund.

The fund is to be used to provide the means for some deserving young woman to carry on studies that would fit her for a career in the theater. It will be known as the Sarah Bernhardt scholarship and in the opinion of Miss Cowell will be a monument more lasting than one of stone or bronze.

Miss Cowell sent a wire to Miller in San Francisco asking him to co-operate and as might be expected, he replied immediately that the theater's share of the receipts as well as the company's would go to the fund. All of the actors in the company agreed to work without compensation on that night.

Forty seasons ago today reports from London set forth that the Haymarket theater was packed on May 4, when the premier of Sardou's "Fédora" took place.

"I make no stipulation about the awarding and maintaining of the fund," said Miss Cowell yesterday. "My idea is merely to start things going and I feel sure that the plan of making the memorial something of a women's world has appealed to that great hearted woman Sarah Bernhardt."

"I have assurance that the play will meet with general and generous approval for Sarah Bernhardt."

California Girls, Rouge and Artificial Coloring No Longer Necessary!

Stockton—"When I was developing into womanhood my mother was alarmed at my condition, for I had grown weak and frail, as many girls do. I suffered at times. Some of the favorite prescriptions and Golden Medical Discovery, and what a great help they were to girls in my condition. I am glad to say these medicines gave me splendid results, for I developed into a strong, healthy woman, have felt no distress or weakness since, and am the mother of a strong healthy family. RECORD IRON ORE

DULUTH, May 18 (By Associated Press).—Encouraged by reports from the lower lake smelters that iron ore is being melted on a larger scale than had been anticipated, controllers of the Lake Superior mining district and its kindred industries are looking forward to a season of new records.

Everything depends upon the demand for iron from the Lake Erie ports, and with the dock stores diminishing sharply under the heavy consumption at the smelters district operators are confident of a rushing business.

Experts who last winter estimated the output for the district at between $5,000,000 and $6,000,000 tons have raised their maximum estimate to $6,000,000 tons. In case this latter figure is reached there will be a new record for annual shipments from the Lake Superior mines.

With the Lake Superior docks already piling up with cargoes for the freighters, experts expect there is sufficient equipment and manpower available to force the movement past the $4,000,000-ton record mark set in 1916.

New ships have been added to the Great Lakes fleet, increasing the tonnage capacity several million tons.

U. S. Friendship Needed.
Says Japanese Envoy

NEW YORK, May 18.—(By the Associated Press.)—Treatment of Japanese in this country, in the opinion of Masamune Hanihara, the Japanese ambassador, is the only thing that is apt to disturb the friendly relations existing between the United States and Japan.

Addressing the Japan society here today, the ambassador declared that the "happy result" of the Washington arms conference was the "removal from our mutual international relations of the feelings of suspicion which had disturbed them." He added, however, that the American attitude toward the Japanese immigrant was the one question, "in the whole bright outlook," which "tends the minds of both peoples."

"I want you to understand," said Hanihara, "that there is no question of our desire to send more immigrants. The question is simply one of elementary principle in international intercourse, that is to say, of discrimination or no discrimination based on color or nationality."

SAYS SOLUTION POSSIBLE.
"Now it is clear to me that America wants to be just and that she is friendly to Japan. On the other hand, Japan has no desire to send to your country such of her people as you do not desire. So with no conflict of great interests between us and with no cause on either side for distrust or suspicion, but with evident desire and every reason on both sides for a mutually beneficial friendship, I confess that I cannot see why our common intelligence and common wisdom should fail to find the right solution, fair and satisfying to all of us, to a problem which is apparently difficult but really simple."

With this question settled, there will be nothing left to come that may likely disturb our happy relations."

Discussing the benefits derived from the Washington conference the ambassador declared "it had been apparent for some time before the conference that distrust and suspicion had crept into the minds of some of the people of both countries."

SEES MALICIOUS INFLUENCE.
"It seems to me," he continued, "that this had been due largely to influences—some merely ignorant, others malicious—which have been exerted persistently in recent years to undermine the traditional friendship of the two countries. But, in spite of these efforts, the conference gave both countries a real opportunity to talk things over, and the people had a chance to learn what was going on."

After declaring there were "excellent reasons, both material and ideal," for Japan and the United States to be on the "friendliest terms," Hanihara said:

"Japan sells to the United States more than to all other countries combined, excepting only China; and Japan is America's best Oriental customer. Further, that the American trade with China is not injuriously affected by Japanese competition, although the opposite is often alleged. The fact is, America's sales to China are increasing more rapidly in proportion than are Japan's. To students of the national needs of Japan it has become clear that we must have America's co-operation—both money and energy—to develop our industry and commerce. And it is equally clear that in such full development of trade and manufacture lies the only hope for Japan's economic recovery, more, her national survival."

VALUABLE CONNECTIONS.
Japan is a valuable trade connection for the Pacific region, Hanihara asserted, adding that the connection is even more valuable to Japan than to America.

"We understand these facts," he continued, "and understand them as plainly as we understand the most important fact of our own interests as to attempt any action, or adopt any policy that might injure these markets and sources of supply."

As to Japan's relations with China, the ambassador declared his country's policy toward China always had been one of "peace, friendship and mutual accommodation."

"At any time," he continued, "there was apparent deviation from this policy, it was due more to circumstances and conditions prevailing at the time than to the motive and intent behind it. Why should be friendly to China is simple to understand. Japan is so geographically situated that her trading and safety are directly affected by conditions in China, and then Japan is very dependent for her trade and manufacture on China."

WANT CHINA'S GOOD WILL.
"This is why Japan is so deeply interested in China's peace and in her good and stable government. For without them the normal intercourse which is so vital to our interest cannot take place. This is why Japan is anxious to win China's good will, for without it our economic life will be seriously menaced."

"It is for these reasons that Japan has been and is showing China every possible consideration that one can expect of another. Japan is willing to do for her neighbor whatever is in her power in the interest of the good relations between the two countries."

Germany Puts Ban
On Absinthe Sale
BERLIN, May 18 (By Associated Press.)—The sale of absinthe in Germany has brought joy to the "dry" workers' camp.

The Reichstag has adopted a law prohibiting the production and sale of absinthe, and measures have been inaugurated to restrict the public advertisements of alcoholic beverages.

May 1, and Berlin's municipal railways have been directed hereafter to accept advertisements for liquor interests only on the same terms and to the same extent as they take them for other firms.

Japan is a valuable trade connection for the Pacific region, Hanihara asserted, adding that the connection is even more valuable to Japan than to America.

"We understand these facts," he continued, "and understand them as plainly as we understand the most important fact of our own interests as to attempt any action, or adopt any policy that might injure these markets and sources of supply."

As to Japan's relations with China, the ambassador declared his country's policy toward China always had been one of "peace, friendship and mutual accommodation."

"At any time," he continued, "there was apparent deviation from this policy, it was due more to circumstances and conditions prevailing at the time than to the motive and intent behind it. Why should be friendly to China is simple to understand. Japan is so geographically situated that her trading and safety are directly affected by conditions in China, and then Japan is very dependent for her trade and manufacture on China."

HOUSE OF DAVID INNER SECRETS TOLD BY GIRL

Wedded Man to Escape
"Michael, the Archangel,"
But Retained Chastity.

(In the following story concerning Mrs. Leona Johnson Henger, who fled from the cult, reveals many hitherto unpublished details of life there.)

By LEONA JOHNSON HENGER.
Written for the United Press.
(Copyright, 1923, by the United Press Associations.)

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., May 18.—I entered the House of David when 16 years of age, coming from Los Angeles with my parents. My mother had heard preachers from the colony, and being a devout woman, she thought it would be a wonderful thing to live with the "brother of Jesus Christ."

My parents turned over all their property to King Benjamin Purnell and we were sent to a farm to work. My mother and father were separated and I was sent to a cottage to live with two other girls. King Benjamin seemed to like me from the start. He praised my dancing. I was born in Honolulu and learned the hula dances from my mother. I was appointed a "spotter" to report to Benjamin any misconduct on the part of any of the colonists. I saw any dirt or girls or any other misconduct, I reported it immediately. Benjamin and Queen Mary, his wife, would praise me highly whenever I made my reports and then they reprimanded the wrongdoer.

"SHILOH GIRL" AMBITION.
My ambition, like that of all other girls in the colony, was to become a "Shiloh girl"—that is, one who gave all of her time to waiting on Benjamin.

They were the favored and the select of the colony. The first winter I was in the colony, a man who said he was "Michael, the Archangel," came to the cottage where I stayed and discussed religious subjects with me.

He first offered me large sums of money. I did not know about taking the money, so consulted Queen Mary. She said:

"Be careful of this man, for he is spinning a web and you may become entangled."
"So I started to spin my web, too. Michael told me that he would give me a great light upon me and that I would become a virgin mother of a child who would lead the Israelites to England. He said when the child was born he would succeed Benjamin and I would succeed Queen Mary."

"I had been warned against him and after a scene in my room when he stole a knife, I forced him to leave. However, I will still admit of him and I consulted Queen Mary again. She said that she thought for my protection I should be married immediately and suggested Joseph Henger, 44, then a night watchman near the farm, for my husband."

"TOOK PITY ON HENGER."
While I never had been friendly with Henger, I knew who he was and had taken pity on him. As I knew Henger was a devout and married man, I did not see any difference in marriage to us, and we were to live forever anyway. I accepted Queen Mary's word as law.

"That night I saw Henger. He sat on one side of the room and I on the other," he said.
"Joe, Mary thinks we should be married to protect me from Michael. What do you say about it?"

Joe turned his head around in his hands a few times and then replied: "I think we should, too. I think you should have the protection."
"I was 17 then. We talked a few minutes and then Henger left without embracing or kissing me. The next day, without any additional courtship, we were married by a justice."

"We never lived as man and wife. He embraced me a few times and kissed me twice in our four years of marriage, but we obeyed the laws of the colony to the letter."

Alamedans Seek Lower Ferry Rate
ALAMEDA, May 18.—Acting upon the request of Alameda, a conference is to be held in the city hall Monday, May 28, of mayors and city attorneys of East-bay cities for the purpose of obtaining a plan to secure a reduction of ferry rates across the bay. A petition asking for a reduction of 10 cents for one way across the bay, and 33 for round-trip rates per month was received from the city of Alameda.

Priest Kills Hope of Early Release
Brigands Firm, Missionary Warns
Second Visit to Lair Is Described

SHANGHAI, May 18.—(By the Associated Press.)—Another letter from Rev. William Leifer, the aged German priest of Lincheng, was delivered to the Associated Press here today and describes his second trip to the stronghold of the Shantung brigands. For the second time within a few days he interviewed the bandit chieftain, but did not succeed in obtaining the liberation of any of the foreign captives.

"I advise you to print in large letters," Father Leifer writes, "that there is no hope of the prisoners being released in a short time. Who thinks otherwise is ignorant of the ways of the mountain outlaws."
Starting from Tsaochow Tuesday, Father Leifer was accompanied by Dr. H. J. Martens and Father Huis, a Dutch missionary. They traveled thirteen hours and encountered a Japanese. Father Leifer relates that en route they encountered a Japanese, also bound for the bandit headquarters.

"The bandits made him proceed," writes the priest, "because he would certainly have been killed, greatly increasing our danger. He refused; we threatened, and compelled him to turn back."
"We heard a signal shot at noon and discerned bandits on the slopes of the mountains. We continued until we were halted at the outer camp of the outlaws. They were distant and suspicious and told us they were being cheated and I was being deceived, because they declared, the troops had been withdrawn from only one mountain, after I had promised that all would be released. They told me that new troops then were only four miles away."

Cloudburst Stops Beaumont Business
BEAUMONT, Tex., May 18.—(United Press.)—A cloudburst which fell here at 8 a. m. and the heavy rain that is still falling, has the city inundated. Street cars have stopped, automobiles are stranded everywhere and the water is running over the curbing, flooding business houses.

Lightning struck the Beaumont News building, but caused no serious damage or injuries.

Now She Wants It Changed,
But Contractor Husband Opposing Move.

If a woman sues for separate maintenance and, through inadvertence, is granted a decree of divorce, can she be forced to accept the findings of the court?

This is the question Superior Judge James C. Quinn will be called upon to decide in the case of Anna Bell Van Tassel against Robert D. Van Tassel, erstwhile minister, bond broker and realty salesman and now a contractor and builder.

Mrs. Van Tassel sued for separate maintenance, her husband countering with a suit for divorce. After a lengthy hearing, marked with sensational charges involving a Mrs. Watkins, an employee of the Oakland postoffice, the wife's plea was granted. Property valued at $100,000 was divided by the decree.

At the time the decision was announced it was stated that a decree of separate maintenance had been granted to the wife. Today Attorney C. E. Snook represented Mrs. Van Tassel, filed a motion to modify the decree, pointing out that through inadvertence the decree as prepared and handed to the court for signature provided "that the plaintiff is entitled to a divorce from the defendant." Snook seeks to insert the words "separate maintenance" in place of "a divorce." This is being opposed by Van Tassel, who claims that the decree cannot be modified. In the absence of Judge Quinn, who is ill, the case went over for a week.

YOUTH STEALS TWO BRIDES AND AN AUTOMOBILE

SACRAMENTO, May 18.—(By International News Service.)—Having stolen a bride and a bridesmaid, Earl Lyle Jackson, 21-year-old Oregon youth, brought his checkered career to a disastrous close by stealing a car in which to get out on a three-cornered honeymoon financed by worthless checks.

Such, in brief, was the story of the youth's downfall as related by arresting officers in the United States district court. Today Jackson was charged with stealing the car, which he started on for Livermore, California, to serve an 18 months' sentence for stealing the car. When he completes his sentence officers from three other states will await him with warrants charging him with the theft of the car.

The Jackson is alleged to have induced two Spokane girls of good family to go touring with him. Near Portland their car broke down, Jackson subsequently married one of the girls, and that he could possibly be the last member of the Rhine force to return.

He would not make known the soldier's name.
Americans Complete Siberian Withdrawal
WASHINGTON, May 18.—The state department was advised yesterday that American Consul Tuck at Vladivostok and other members of the consular staff left that city Wednesday for Tokyo, thus completing the withdrawal of American consular representatives from the territories of Soviet Russia.

The consul and his assistants withdrew under the requirements of the Soviet officials applying generally to foreign consuls in Vladivostok and which were found impossible of acceptance on the part of the United States.

Thomas Divorce 'Transferred South'
LOS ANGELES, May 18.—(By International News Service.)—Papers in the divorce suit against Joe Thomas, automobile racing driver, which were filed by Gladys S. Thomas in Kings county, were on file today in the local superior court, having been transferred here for trial. The change of venue was granted on representation that Thomas was a resident of Los Angeles. Mrs. Thomas charged desertion and asked $200 a month alimony.

Trains Hit in Fog; Fireman Is Killed
DENVER, Colo., May 18.—Fireman James Rubison of Denver was killed today when two passenger trains on the Rock Island railroad collided in a dense fog west of Selden, Kan., according to reports to the Rock Island office here. Several persons were reported shaken up, but none seriously hurt.

MRS. MYRIAM BOWMAN LEACH, of Danvers, Mass., pleaded not guilty to forging C. M. Schwab's name to a note for $25,000. Her case has revived the story of Cassie Chadwick, who forged Andrew Carnegie's name to $2,000,000 worth of paper. Insert shows SCHWAB.

'CHUCK' PALMER FREED BY QUIZ
IN MOUNT CASE

CHICAGO, May 18.—Charles "Chuck" Palmer, star football player and senior at Northwestern university, after being held part of the time in a cell which he referred to as a dungeon, since 1 a. m. yesterday in connection with the state attorney's investigation of the disappearance of Leighton Mount, a freshman, after a class rush in September, 1921, was released on his own recognizance today by Chief Justice McKinley.

Palmer declared that he was taken from the Sigma Xi fraternity house in Evanston early yesterday without being permitted to communicate with relatives, friends or attorneys and was lodged in a police station cell.

Further, he declared that for twelve hours he was held in what he termed a dungeon, with solid steel walls except for barred windows at the top and a window so small that the cell was nearly dark. The football player was taken into custody after Mrs. Violet Bachman, who before her marriage was friendly with the athlete, had said he had told her shortly after Mount disappeared that Mount was safe and that he knew all about the Mount case.

Palmer denied the story told by Mrs. Bachman and said he knew nothing about the Mount case.

Milk-fed Students Increase Weight
MARTINEZ, May 18.—Superintendent morning feeding of milk to students in grammar schools as a means of bringing them to normal weight is bringing results even greater than school officials anticipated, Miss Rachael Miller, county school nurse, declared today.

Graphs showing the increase in weight students in schools where supervised feeding is practiced are being prepared by Miss Miller. Her records show that in San Ramon school, the heaviest of the school term, 67 per cent of the students were of normal weight and at the end of the school term 91 per cent were of normal weight. In the last year first and second grade students of the grammar school at Danville have shown an increase from 60 to 93 per cent normal weight and, in the third and fourth grades, an increase from 72 1/2 per cent to 93 per cent.

Charge Modified
OROVILLE, Butte county May 18.—The charge of manslaughter against Dwight J. Balow, driver of the car in which Mrs. Ellis of Oroville lost her life when the car overturned near Richvale, was modified today by District Attorney William E. Rothe Wednesday and a charge of driving an automobile on a public highway while under the influence of intoxicating liquor was substituted.

Arraignment and preliminary hearing on the modified charge will be held before Justice of the Peace Harry S. Hills in Oroville within a few days according to District Attorney William E. Rothe.

Yolo Tax Shortage Smallest in History
WOODLAND, May 18.—Yolo county's tax delinquency this year has the lowest in the history of the county, according to Tax Collector Robert W. Woods, who has collected all but $6700 of a tax levy of $778,423.23. Woods expects that the best part of this will be paid in by delinquents out of the state. The delinquency last year was better than two per cent.

County Auditor R. P. Wallace declares that the small delinquency is due to general prosperous times and the promise of bumper crops, the best in the history of the county.

Sunnyvale Firemen Hold Whist Party
SUNNYVALE, May 18.—The Sunnyvale Volunteer Fire Department held another of its whist parties in Fremont hall. The party was well attended and prizes for the winners at whist and "500" were given out, the prizes being the gifts of local merchants and members of the fire department.

Your physician will recommend Kellogg's Bran because it is ALL BRAN! Kellogg's will do the work; it will give you permanent relief.

Will eat it regularly—because it is ALL BRAN! Kellogg's Bran, cooked and krumbled, is wonderful for health. It sweeps, cleans and purifies, ridding the system of the dangerous toxic poisons. Yet it is simply a natural food—nature's own remedy for constipation; nature's way of keeping every body-organ tuned true.

Eat Kellogg's Bran regularly to give permanent relief naturally—at least two tablespoons daily; for chronic cases, with every meal. It is as beneficial as a preventive. Its nut-like flavor is delicious. You will like it sprinkled over your favorite hot or cold cereal, or eat it as a cereal. Kellogg's Bran makes delightful muffins, raisin bread, pancakes, etc. It is a new factor to soups and gravies. Have the whole family eat Kellogg's Bran and see the health of every member improve.

All grocers sell Kellogg's Bran.

ANDRADE FREED

ON CHARGES OF EMBEZZLEMENT

May Sue Bank and Insurance Company for False Arrest.

Jesse Andrade, former assistant cashier of the Oakland branch of the Bank of Italy, is at liberty today after having been acquitted by a jury in the superior court of charges of embezzlement. The verdict of the jury came late yesterday after the jurors had been instructed by Superior Judge Patrick R. Parker to acquit Andrade. The jurors did not leave their seats, returning the verdict as instructed.

Andrade and his attorneys, Peter Crosby, Carlisle Crosby and George Natus, greeted each of the jurors as they left the box, shaking hands with them. Andrade thanked each juror. Tears stood in his eyes as he did so and his voice was husky with emotion.

CONFIRMATION DECLINED
After the court session, Attorney Peter Crosby was asked if the defendant was going to file a damage suit against the officials of the Bank of Italy and Lloyd's London Insurance company, alleging false arrest. Mr. Crosby refused to deny or admit this was considered.

"We have given little thought to this," said Crosby. "We have waited until the criminal charges were all cleared away before going into this matter. The verdict has just been announced. It is too early to decide. Within the next few days we will consider this question carefully."

Andrade has been placed on trial three times, after his arrest last July. Two indictments were returned against him, one charging falsification of public records and the other the embezzlement of $40,500. At his first trial, on the falsification charge, he was found not guilty.

At his second trial the jury considered all seven counts in the indictment, found him not guilty on two and disagreed on the balance. It was on the remaining charges that the third trial was held. This session was the shortest of the three and its sudden closing came as a surprise to all who have followed the case. The first trial took five weeks and the second took four. The last trial was concluded in ten days. After the court session yesterday Andrade said:

"I am certainly happy. It has been a long, long strain. Almost a year this has been hanging over my head. It has hastened the death of my father, who worried himself into his grave over it. Then, too, there is my wife and little one. I am happy for their sakes more than for mine. It is tough on a young man to be under such a cloud as this, but it is the fact that my loved ones and I am cleared and will face the world anew with my confidence restored."

The mention of the insurance company in the damage suit which may be filed on Andrade's behalf comes through the fact that it was this company that furnished Andrade's bond. The amount alleged to have been short, was made good by the bonding company and an official of that company was the complainant against Andrade.

Early Berries Are Marketed in Butte

OROVILLE, Butte county May 18.—First loganberries to be offered to the market in commercial quantities were on sale in Oroville Wednesday. The berries, from W. Gingles place in Thermotto, are said to be the earliest loganberries marketed in the state. The berries were of fine quality and were snapped up quickly by the local trade.

Blackberries are almost ripe in the Thermotto district and will be brought to the local market within a day or two, establishing another record for early fruit.

Teachers Paid Under Attorney's Decision

OROVILLE, Butte county May 18.—The county school teachers are today drawing their salary warrants. Following the receipt of a written opinion from District Attorney William E. Rothe to the effect that C. H. Nielson could legally sign the warrants as acting superintendent of schools despite his controversy with the Chico High School Board, County Auditor Mrs. Lucy Richards started counter-signing the warrants Wednesday afternoon.

Man is Arrested
For Reckless Driving

OROVILLE, Butte county May 18.—A Stinson wanted in Marysville was arrested in Oroville yesterday and returned to Marysville where his trial has been set for Thursday, May 24, at 3 p. m. He is released on bail.

C. T. Bradley swore to the complaint charging Stamos with reckless driving alleged to have been committed on the District Ten Highway on April 28. Stamos is said to have forced Bradley off the highway with his car. The warrant was issued some time ago.

Charge Modified

OROVILLE, Butte county May 18.—The charge of manslaughter against Dwight J. Balow, driver of the car in which Mrs. Ellis of Oroville lost her life when the car overturned near Richvale, was modified today by District Attorney William E. Rothe Wednesday and a charge of driving an automobile on a public highway while under the influence of intoxicating liquor was substituted.

Arraignment and preliminary hearing on the modified charge will be held before Justice of the Peace Harry S. Hills in Oroville within a few days according to District Attorney William E. Rothe.

Yolo Tax Shortage Smallest in History

WOODLAND, May 18.—Yolo county's tax delinquency this year has the lowest in the history of the county, according to Tax Collector Robert W. Woods, who has collected all but $6700 of a tax levy of $778,423.23. Woods expects that the best part of this will be paid in by delinquents out of the state. The delinquency last year was better than two per cent.

County Auditor R. P. Wallace declares that the small delinquency is due to general prosperous times and the promise of bumper crops, the best in the history of the county.

BANDITS AND CONFUCIUS.

Preposterous as it may seem to admirers of the peaceful Confucius, many of those bandits who held up the train in China and kidnapped foreigners were direct descendants of the sage. In fact, more than two-thirds of the natives over a large region around Kufu are descended from the great teacher, and Kufu is but seventy miles north of the scene of attack.

Between Tientsin and Pukow, well-equipped trains with sleeping and buffet cars, run daily each way. Linsheng, where the bandits stopped the train, is 375 miles south of Tientsin, the northern terminus of the line where Herbert Hoover and a party of Americans were besieged during the famous Boxer outbreak.

The building of the railroad, started in 1898, was halted during the Boxer troubles. It was the first in China where construction and control was vested wholly with the Chinese government. In the bandit country the principal products are peanuts and hairnets.

Of the country and the probability that the grandsons of Confucius, many times removed, took part in the bandit attack, the National Geographic Society says:

"Confucius was born at Kufu barely 70 miles north of the scene of the bandit attack and he lies buried there, surrounded by many thousands of his descendants. The way in which this family or clan has persisted and multiplied deserves to rank as one of the biological wonders of the world. It is estimated that 70 per cent of the population over a large region around Kufu are descended from the great teacher. At the little town, which is at once the birthplace and burial place of Confucius, lives today his seventy-sixth lineal descendant the 'Holy Duke' K'ung.

"The towering mountain, Tai Shan, China's most holy shrine, lies in sight of the Tientsin-Pukow railway, not many miles north of the point at which the attack was made. It has been deemed holy since before 2200 B. C. Confucians, Taoists and Buddhists alike revere this mountain and have erected shrines at its foot, on its slopes and at its summit. It is a favorite point for pilgrimage, as many as 10,000 pilgrims a day making the journey to it during February and March. Many of these climb laboriously to the top and there worship.

"The contrast between the barbarous China of bandits and the modern China of Western ways was nowhere so striking as in the choice of Linsheng for the attack. There the branch line to Yihhsien runs to one of China's greatest coal mines, furnishing fuel for its modern factories and power stations. This largest mine in Shantung is operated by a Chinese company, unlike other mines in the province which are being exploited by foreign capital.

DINOSAUR QUARRY CLOSES.

Until the scientists agree as to whether the fossils taken from the gorge of the Colorado are those of gigantic men or of animals local paleontological enthusiasts will be held in check. In the interim those whose tastes for the digging game were whetted with the accounts from Luxor may turn their attention to Utah county, Utah, where an established dinosaur quarry is going out of business.

It was the Carnegie Museum of Pittsburgh which opened up the place in 1905 and when Professor Earl Douglass made his discoveries. Since that time, and hours in a bungalow built in the dreary fields, Professor Douglass has been struck by the task of hauling out relics of prehistoric beasts that museums might benefit and research be extended.

The quarry has yielded hundreds of fragmentary and detached bones which were found in a jumbled mass in one narrow deposit. Several skeletons, but not complete, were discovered and blasted from their beds, and three or four were considered remarkable, ranging in length to nearly one hundred feet.

Now the demand for dinosauria has fallen so low that the quarry is to be abandoned. The owners have all they need and there are other fields, in Wyoming, Colorado, Nebraska, and South Dakota competing with the one at Jensen quarry. It is probable, according to the Salt Lake Tribune, that the more conspicuous bones that are left will be marked for the benefit of tourists and that a sort of park will be made of the quarry and surrounding country. When the world needs more dinosauria the work will be continued.

THE TWELVE GREATEST.

The New York Nation has made a discovery to its liking. In the list of the twelve "greatest living American Women," as given out by the League of Women Voters the name of Jane Addams led all the rest.

There may be many others who will share with the Nation a feeling of satisfaction that her name should appear first but some of them will look further. Following Miss Addams is Cecilia Beaux. Then come Anna Jump Cannon, Carrie Chapman Catt, Anna Botsford Comstock, Minnie Maddern Fiske, Louise Homer, Julia Lathrop, Florence Rena Sabin, M. Carey Thomas, Martha Van Rensselaer and Edith Wharton.

It is a good list despite the fact that the average man cannot place, in the light of their service, more than six or seven of those designated. The task of selection is difficult and must ever be unsatisfactory. Yet, it encourages a little investigation and will serve to acquaint many thousands with the aims and deeds of women leaders in twelve fields.

"Naturally the Nation rejoices that Jane Addams, like Abou Ben Adhem, led all the rest."

And naturally the name is first. The order is alphabetical.

THE VOLCANO CANNON.

Amador county's efforts to secure the return by the state of the historic Volcano cannon have the support of the public in general. It is true the old cannon will not be seen by so many persons at Volcano, or at least it would at Sacramento, but there is a real advantage in having a relic remain near the spot where it played its part in the state's history. In addition, there is a suspicion that the state is not entitled to the cannon.

The old gun was sent to Sacramento during the Days of '49 celebration and, for some reason, it remained there. Requests for its return were met with the reply that someone in Amador county had made a present of the cannon to Sacramento or the state. Now Amador county is adopting resolutions and writing letters. It wants the relic back and intends to get it.

To those outside of the argument the conspicuous feature of the affair is the commendable display of feeling for the Volcano cannon. When residents of a community mark the historic spots, preserve the memorials, and are ready to fight for the custody of their prized possessions of earlier days, they are showing their love and respect for California history and tradition.

It was not so long ago when many of the state's most significant spots were without designating marks and when many of its most priceless relics were neglected.

SMOKE ON THE SKY.

The practice of writing upon the sky can be carried too far. A soap ad on a sunset or the altering of rosy dawn to make the reputation of a freckle lotion - these are fearful possibilities.

The airplane as a tracer of smoke letters appeared in the news immediately after the war. London had a plague of them. The azure was frescoed with billowy reminders of the qualities of gum, corsets and sealing wax. The stunt became common and then a nuisance—and yet, it might have been worse.

When the propagandists take to tracing their tempting words on the sky an exasperated world will drag out the anti-aircraft guns or hide its vision behind umbrellas. Perfected a little sooner, the scheme would have been used in the war during those days when soldiers in one line of trenches signaled to the enemy. In place of the little signs which read: "You are in the heavens. And, doubtless, the answer—and the answer's answer. There is no end to smoke or propaganda.

MAN'S FAITHFUL FRIEND.

A man in the dog has proved he is man's most faithful friend. The other day at Everett, the four-footed companion of a 9-year-old boy, lost in the woods for twenty-four hours, led the youth to safety. The animal, when told to go home found his way at night from the depths of an untracked forest to a familiar road, and was followed by his little master. And it must not be thought the canine friend was unaware a faith had been repaid to him. He knew his mission. If it were possible to learn all the facts, they would show that, tired though he was, he wagged his tail all the time and slipped back frequently with an encouraging bark to cheer his lagging comrade. Dogs are intelligent, and often, as in this instance, their intelligence is superior to human understanding.

The dog always has been man's friend and his helper. In the Stone Age, both hunted in caves and stalked game together. In northern latitudes, the dog works as a draft animal. He is a vigilant guardian. In every way, he has done valiant duty. And from time immemorial he has been appreciated by humanity. When animals were worshipped, he had his idolaters. Strius, the dog-star, the brightest star in the heavens, is symbolical of a religion that never died. But the dog unlike man, never has been so foolish as to claim for himself the attributes of divinity. Always he has been content to be a dutiful subordinate. This quick forgiveness of injury has softened the hearts of men in all ages. He is exonerated and persistently abused by only one race, and its animals reek with inhumanity to man—the human. The faithful dog compels his master in any walk of life to temper justice with mercy.—Seattle Times.

Literary Notes

"Columnists" . . . we put the loathsome word in quotes, for we have always hated it . . . are being accused freely these days of literary logrolling. They do less of it than might be supposed. We are the only one that does it in a practical, literal sort of way, steadily and continuously. We refer specifically to the suburban author who keeps us supplied with firewood.

* * *

This gentleman rolls his quota of logs up to our front door every week. And all he gets out of it is immunity from exposure. He steals the wood and he dare not cease to supply us with it lest we publish his name and disgrace him. It is the only time in our life we ever hold the whip hand over any human being and the sense of power is slightly intoxicating.

* * *

Nobody need be surprised if newspaper men generally do take to logrolling, however. They have been engaged in making other people conspicuous, famous and notorious for several centuries and, on the whole, getting very little out of it, whereas the people to whom they have given the publicity have gotten a good deal out of it in one way or another. If there is a growing tendency on the part of newspaper men to say half as much about other newspaper men as they have always said about professional people, artists of all sorts and public characters, in general, it is nothing to wonder over.

* * *

Literary men, as distinguished from newspaper writers, have always, in reviews and popular magazines and prefaces and lectures and interviews, frankly and without shame boasted the work of other literary men whom they admire, and no reproach has attached to them for this: nor should any reproach attach to them. It is the most natural thing in the world.

* * *

And it is not usually done for any small or mercenary motive. Smith's work for ten years because he believes in the work and takes pleasure in saying so, and Smith never once recedes, nor is he expected to. Jones knows that Smith has no public medium for recollection, and doesn't care a fig about it. On the other hand, if Smith does have space in some journal at his command and does happen to be Jones' work, he would not hesitate to say so, and would be careful not to say he liked it. To omit saying so for fear Brown might pick up and accuse Jones and Smith of logrolling?

Newspaper men, as a rule, have been extraordinarily shy about mentioning the work of other newspaper men, in comparison with fiction writers and essayists and the people who work for weeks and months reviews. And just as soon as they do it once or twice they are accused of logrolling and doing it all along are the ones that set up a howl about it.

* * *

Reference with regard to the work of other newspaper men has been one of our own faults, and it is a fault which we intend to reform in the future. We shall be accused of logrolling whether we log or not, and from now on we intend to make an effort to do it all along are the ones that set up a howl about it.

As for the bird that steals for us, he can go right ahead with the work. We don't promise to make him famous but we give him five days from the date of this publication to hustle in that driftwood he spoke of recently or we'll make him notorious. A "columnist" can accept legs without a hitch, but one of these "wordy" without literary guys, a poetist and everything, would find it an execution all bloated up if it ever got out on him that he pulled it off.

* * *

We read this chap's latest book the other day and it is a pipkin. One of our chief regrets is that we'll never be able to mention it without exposing the author.

EXCERPTS from the NATIONAL PRESS

New York Times: Governor Gifford Whitcomb has signed the Derrick bill, passed by legislators who walk in fear of the "farmer vote," and it is now illegal for any city or town in the state of Pennsylvania to "save daylight" under the authorization or command of a municipal ordinance. Thus is produced what is probably the most flagrant violation of the home-rule principle that American history presents—a violation that has no slightest justification of any kind, and no explanation except the curious animosity, based partly on jealousy and partly on envy, which rural populations everywhere feel for those that are urban.

New Orleans Item: Nine-tenths of the so-called law is bunk," says W. G. Marvin, counsel to the American Manufacturers' Export Association, before the Foreign Trade Council. He is better qualified to express an opinion in the premises than we laymen. We ourselves while agreeing with him in part, would not be disposed to put the percentage so high. Much as most of us like to rail at "The Law," observation and reflection both convince us that there is a great deal of good purpose, sound theory and practical common sense, mixed up with The Bunk that The Law contains.

SAID STUDY TO PLEASURE.

Said Study to Study: "I'm better for man. I take him from trouble whenever I can. I lighten his burdens and soften his woes. And lead him to laughter wherever he goes. With thoughts of his duty I never offend, I make him happy, and I'm his best friend."

Said Study to Study: "I better his mind. I help him to conquer the cares he shall find. I make him wiser. A day spent with me And stronger and braver in trouble he'll be. You bring him laughter that fades with the hour. But I bring him knowledge and I bring him power."

Said Study to Study: "You trouble him so. You whisper of work when to play he would go. You hold him fast to a book or a dream, I take him out to the banks of a stream. I give him music and dancing and fun, I set him free from the tasks he has done."

Said Study to Study: "I strengthen his hand. I make him able to rule and command. I give him courage and wisdom to bear. Whatever life sends him of trial and care I talk of duty and I hold him fast. But I give him 'humph' and 'foy' that shall last."

(Written for Burbank Jubilee Day, Santa Rosa, May 20, 1923.)

He has a rendezvous with life. More full than ever, promise cries. The past, long dead, beneath him lies.

Whose rich fulfillment all can see. This day of Golden Jubilee!

He has a rendezvous with life. This kindly man of wondrous skill. And youth of soul is with him still.

He has a rendezvous with life. And shares his joys with you and me. This day of Golden Jubilee!

He has a rendezvous with life. The world, his dearest, thanks bestow. While all around his treasures glow.

He has a rendezvous with life. And full of charm of soul he is. This day of Golden Jubilee!

He has a rendezvous with life. And all things living sing his praise. O, may he live full length of days!

PERSONAL HEALTH SERVICE

THE TEMPERATURE OF THE WORKROOM.

Girls employed in factories are particularly susceptible to the respiratory diseases, including ordinary coryza (head "cold"), sore throat, bronchitis and tuberculosis, because of the fact that they obtain little or no sunshine all winter, for they go to and from work before and after the hours of sunshine; because of the dust to which they are exposed in many industries; and because of the excessive warmth of the workroom.

The less daylight in the workroom the worse for the health of the worker. Employers who provide a pleasant roof garden or other place where the workers may obtain a little direct sunlight at lunch hour are rendering a public service as well as improving the health and efficiency of employees. Direct sunlight is a powerful stimulant to the manufacture of red blood corpuscles, a stimulant of metabolism, and a germicide as strong as any chemical which may be safely applied to the body surface.

The influence of dust in various occupations has been touched upon in recent discussions in this column. I should say here that the minute injury of the delicate lining of the air passages from dust particles, probably opens the way of infection, which the individual might otherwise escape. And if the victim is confined long hours in a dark workroom where little sunlight even indirect, ever penetrates her resistance to such infections is naturally weakened.

Girls in factory workrooms often quarrel with each other about ventilation. One girl thinks it is too warm and wants to open some windows. Another feels none too warm and fears the draft will give her a "cold." The result is that when the matters are left to the whim of the workers, much dissatisfaction prevails.

It is of little import whether windows are kept open or closed. The important thing is the temperature of the room. If that is regulated by arbitrary standard, the whims of the girls at work in the room may properly be ignored. Let the thermometer be the sole guide. At a temperature of approximately 68 degrees Fahrenheit, or maybe a degree or two lower, the humidity or moisture of the air will be about right, and the health of the workers will be conserved.

BUILT CLOTH SCREEN.

One thing I saw in Buenos Aires puzzled me more than any other—the curtains carefully put around buildings in course of construction or remodeling. In the United States a covered way over the sidewalk protects the pedestrians from falling timbers and plaster, while the skeleton of the new structure looms high above in stark nakedness. But the builder in Buenos Aires is more modest. He puts a high board fence three-fourths of the way across the sidewalk and tops it with cloth many yards high. Behind this screen the edifice grows, until one day the flimsy barricade is removed, revealing a structure elaborately decorated with tiles and cupids and clement scrolls.—Frances S. Harris in World Traveler Magazine.

EDUCATION BOARD SAFES ARE BLOWN

Burglars Get Small Sum From Offices of Berkeley Education Board; Missed $10,000 Recently on Hand

BERKELEY, May 18. — Burglars, believed to have been in search of $10,000 which had been collected earlier in the week, last night broke into the rooms of the Berkeley Board of Education, Alston way above Shattuck avenue. Two small safes of fireproof variety were cut open by the burglars with chisels. As far as can be ascertained, the intruders got only $28.66 for their trouble.

A. E. Olson, janitor, discovered the burglary at 7 o'clock, when he reported for duty. He immediately notified the police. Officers found the offices of Business Manager Clyde Blanchard and Superintendent H. B. Wilson in disorder. Papers, official books and other documents were scattered over the two rooms.

It was from the safe in the business office that the money was taken. Nothing was reported missing from the contents of the safe in the office of Superintendent Wilson, where only official documents are kept.

Before cutting open the safes, the men are declared to have broken open the desk of Miss Bertrice Moore, assistant to Business Manager Blanchard, where they obtained the keys for the strong box in the business office safe where any cash, which may be on hand, is kept. This box was found empty on the floor.

Sergeant Frank Swain and officers who investigated the burglary found that entrance was gained through a rear door.

WEEKS AND PARTY TO BE ENTERTAINED

Bay Cities Make Elaborate Preparations For Visit of War Secretary, Congressmen; to See Alameda Site

Elaborate preparations are being made by civic organizations in the several bay cities for the entertainment of the congressional party of an honored by Secretary of War John W. Weeks, which is to arrive here Thursday, May 24.

During the three days that the party will be in the bay district they will be guests at luncheons and dinners given on both sides of the bay, and will be entertained with rides on the bay and by automobiles to points of scenic and historic interest.

Greetings of San Francisco, Oakland, Alameda and Berkeley are being carried to the party in San Diego by a special committee of seven, which left for Southern California today. The committee is composed of Harrison S. Robinson, president of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce, and A. S. Layton, representing Oakland; Robert Newton Light, managing director of the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce; Captain Frank Alsworth and Louis E. Haas, representing San Francisco; Highway Commissioner Harvey M. Toy, representing the bay cities; and Mayor Frank O. Alameda.

WILL BE MET ON ARRIVAL.
 A large committee of men and women from the bay cities is now being organized to take charge of the entertainment. These people will meet the host when it docks in San Francisco on the morning of the 24th and will have general charge of the complete program during the three days.

The first luncheon in honor of the party will be given by the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce and San Francisco Commercial Club in the Continental Club building, and will be for the men of the party. At the same hour the women will be entertained in one of the hotels. Friday noon the congressmen and senators and the secretary of war will be guests at the Commodore Hotel (Club) in San Francisco, and Friday evening the entire party will be entertained by the Association of the Army of the United States at the Fairmont.

ENTERTAINMENT PLANS.
 Saturday is Saturday day on the program. The party will board a steamer on the San Francisco side at 10 o'clock and will sail for the Oakland side, cruising by the Alameda naval base, and then proceed to Marin Island. Returning from Marin Island they will arrive in Oakland at 2 o'clock and will be met at the Alameda Hotel by the local committee.

Ante-luncheon will be on hand at the First and Broadway dock Saturday afternoon, ready to take the visitors on a tour through Alameda, Oakland and Berkeley, and over the scenic coastline, returning to the Oakland Hotel for dinner. The Oakland Chamber of Commerce will be host at this dinner. As it is to be the final event of the three days' program of entertainment, it is the plan to provide for an elaborate, though informal, banquet. Among the other events arranged for the visitors while they are in the bay cities is a review of the troops at the Presidio scheduled for Friday, a tour of San Francisco arranged for Thursday afternoon, and a reception at the headquarters of General Charles M. Norton at the Presidio.

"BABY" DIESEL TO TRANSFORM AUTO INDUSTRY

SAN FRANCISCO, May 18.—

The Bethlehem Shipbuilding Corporation has developed a "baby" diesel engine which will revolutionize automobile transportation.

The engine is a miniature model of the giant engines used to propel steamships and submarines. Gear shifting difficulties will be minimized by the new engine, the transmission being a cone shaped device on which the interlocking members of the gears are mounted. Shifting, inasmuch as the engine itself is reversible, no reverse gear will be needed.

ORPHEUS CLUB, CHOIR PRESENTS CUP TO LEADER

Dr. Edwin Dunbar Crandall, who has been the conductor of the St. Paul's choir for the past 22 years, was the honor guest at a reception last night given by the choir and the Orpheus club. The affair assumed the nature of a birthday party for the conductor, and in recognition of his years of service he was presented with a loving cup by the members of the Orpheus club.

The party was held in the club rooms of the church, and a long program of musical numbers and speeches was offered. Dr. H. P. Carlton of the Orpheus club gave a brief resume of Crandall's connection with the club and choir, and presented him with the silver cup. A feature of the entertainment was a quartet contest staged by pupils of Crandall. The "Anniversary Male Quartet" pitted its vocal prohibitions against the "Anniversary Ladies' Quartet," and the conductor was asked to judge the winners. After the contestants had been required to repeat their tests, the contest was called a draw. A test of the director's musical ear and knowledge of the choir was made. He was blindfolded and as various members of the choir sang he called out their names.

When the song which the members of the Orpheus club declare made "Pop" Crandall famous, was sung in the quartet that first sang the song. Various choral numbers were offered by the choir and by the club, and the concluding number was "Auld Acquaintance," with the choir and club singing together. The program was concluded with refreshments and dancing.

Estate Is Left to Widow and Children

Frank D. Butler, former commission merchant of Chicago and Los Angeles, who retired two years ago, making his home in Oakland until his death on May 6 at the age of 65 years, leaves his $20,000 estate to his widow and three children, according to terms of the will filed for probate by Attorney Clarence E. Todd.

The widow, Mrs. Katherine Jones Butler, lives at 1038 Randolph way, Piedmont, and she receives half the estate as her community interest. The other half of the estate is divided equally between the son and two daughters. The son is Hugh D. Butler, who is an attaché of the American Embassy in London. The daughters are Katharine Lois Butler, now in St. Louis, but soon to return here, it is reported, and Margaret E. Butler, who lives with her mother.

MILTON INTO MILTON INTO 101 MILES IN TRIAL RUN

By AL G. WADDELL,
Former Member Contest Board

INDIANAPOLIS SPEEDWAY
May 18—(Special to The Tribune.)—Dynamite with a short fuse. That is what Tommy Milton was when he made his first turn of the Indianapolis track with his new 122-inch California-built Miller special. Better than 101 miles an hour was the average made by the former speedway champion when he lapped the famous brick course in 1 minute 39 seconds in his first practice for the 500-mile race scheduled for May 20.

When it is considered that 105 miles an hour is the official track record here, that average having been made by Rene Thomas, the Frenchman, with a 20-inch Fiat, some idea of the sensation Milton's fast time created may be had. And the big race is still many days hence.

QUALIFYING TESTS.

In order to start in the May 20 event an entrant must average 80 miles per hour for four laps during the official trials in the speed trials will be the choice positions at the starting line. Milton and Durant both qualified several times in their first workout and Durant said that Cooper's Durant special is a new 104 and it was stiff when he went out on the track with it on the first time.

Durant's own car has done better than 112 miles an hour on the board at Los Angeles and he says it will top the century mark on the bricks of Indianapolis.

While Milton and Durant were thrilling the Hoosier race birds with the first bursts of speed to be seen this season on the Indianapolis track, Jimmy Murphy, the national champion and star of the Durant racing team, had his car locked up in the garage at the speedway and down at Louisville, Ky., where he went with a large party of Indiana Elks for a brief visit soon after his arrival here. The race fans are anxiously waiting for the Irish speed marvel to return to Indianapolis and go out for the track record as he did at Los Angeles and Fresno while preparing for the recent Pacific coast events, with his 133-inch Durant speed job.

Little Harry Hartz has had his new 122-inch Durant out, but has been satisfied with an average of 85 miles an hour in practice so far. The tiny 122-inch jobs are hard to handle on the spectacular brick course here and many of the drivers are gradually working up to the high speed marks that will undoubtedly feature the speed trials during the elimination period.

WANTS TIME.

Eddie Hearne, winner of third place in the 500-mile race last year, who is also a member of the Durant team, has not opened up in practice at all so far. The veteran of the speed trail is nursing his car along until he is sure that it is well worked in before attempting to show up his boss, Cliff Durant, and rival the dynamite, Milton.

While the California crowd, the Durant team; Milton; Benny Hill, also on a Miller special, and Harry Miller, the famous California speed wagon builder, are working up to maximum speed on the track, the Duesenberg crowd are working to get the three new 122 Duesenbergs creations on the track. It will be some time before the Duesenberg jobs are ready for speed and it is a standing joke throughout the racing camps that Duesenberg will just get in at the last minute and be painting his cars at the starting line on the morning of the race.

A visit to the Duesenberg shops just twenty-two days before the date of the big race showed the Duesenberg racers in various stages of disassembly. There were the frames and crank shafts were on hand and parts were spread out like the steel girders for the new TRIBUNE building when Oakland's new skyscraper was in the earliest stages of construction. But with this handicap, Duesenberg promises to have a fast trio on the track May 20.

Berkeley's fair this year has proved a greater attraction than ever before. This event started in a small way several years ago and has grown to include practically every merchant in the city. "Our exhibit of Chevrolet cars has attracted much attention," says G. McCarron, Berkeley Chevrolet dealer.

"Crowds have attended the fair every night this week and we expect a new record to be established for attendance when the doors close next Sunday night."

"We have a touring car, a chassis and a sedanette on display there, and there has been a crowd around the display every afternoon and evening."

Thousands of people who came to the Berkeley fair have expressed their appreciation of the efforts of the Berkeley merchants to make this fair the best ever held in the University City.

YOSEMITE ENDURANCE RUN.

CAMP CURRY (Yosemite), May 18.—Far greater success was predicted here today for the annual Los Angeles-Camp Curry Economy Run, which will finish at Camp Curry Saturday night with the arrival here of a score of contestants for national economy honors.

Los Angeles motor car dealers entered into the 1923 event, which is annually sanctioned by the American Automobile Association and taken a prominent position in automobile events for the year, with a greater enthusiasm than they have ever registered, and it is expected that the better records would be set up by winners in six classes.

Road conditions were pronounced today ideal for the run. This year's contestants have almost perfect road conditions to

Dyer and Darle Reels, have not been seen on the track as yet. These cars were built in California under the supervision of Dr. Palmer, but for the past few weeks have been up at the Packard plant in Detroit getting the final mechanical adjustments for the five century thriller, which they will compete with the greatest creations of European and American engineering science.

The School-Frontier quartet, composed of Ira Vail, Herbert School, Dave Lewis and C. W. Van Horn, has kept under cover pretty well so far, although the new rotary valve racers have been seen in action. School caught fire with his car in his debut workout, but the job has been repaired and is ready for the track again.

SKIPPER'S PAY

BEATEN BY BOY

VICTORIA, B. C., May 18.—The old order has certainly changed some when a cabin boy can pull down more money for his labors than a skipper.

The fluctuations of the poor old German mark have created many unusual conditions and a man with a few honest dollars can provide himself with a chateau in the Fatherland, while another can pay off heavy mortgages in marks with before the end of the year.

The German freighter Han Hemsoth, on her maiden voyage to the Pacific coast, arrived at this port minus one cabin boy. By coincidence it so happened that Joe Norman, tired of his school books, was lounging about the waterfront dreaming of life on a South Sea isle.

Joe got to talking with Captain Bark of the Han Hemsoth, and as a result he signed on for the outward trip at the modest wage of $20 a month and all found. When one consults the foreign exchange rate he can easily convert Joe's monthly income into $89,000 marks so that within six weeks the former schoolboy will be a German millionaire.

Now Captain Bark, with years of safeguarding experience behind him and in honor of and respected citizen of Germany, is drawing a salary that, in this country, makes him feel like a pauper. He signed on for 400,000 marks a month and while that sounds big all the skipper gets when he cashes his check is a lonely ten spot. If he wants company he orders two fives. Captain Bark is always to be found aboard ship—he's too poor to be a good fellow.

Illegal Fisher, Moonshiner Fined

APPLETON, Wis., May 18.—"Do you make your own moonshine?" asked Municipal Court Judge A. M. Spencer, of Albert Belka of New London, today after he had fined the man $100 and costs for fishing for sturgeon in violation of the State game law.

"Yes," answered Belka unwarily. "I do."

Belka, 36, was in jail for violating the State prohibition act.

Mr. Carson likes his wife's COOKING

Mr. Carson is distinctly a home man. He "likes his wife's cooking," as the phrase goes, and he is always generous with his compliments. This, particular evening he was especially appreciative of the Coffee.

"I don't wonder that they call it The Universal Drink," he said thoughtfully. "Just think! While you and I are seated here tonight drinking our Coffee together, millions of other men and women in every section of the country are doing the same thing. Think of the cheer and added enjoyment that Coffee brings to the table of all those people! Why, it is almost indispensable!"

Mrs. Carson nodded. "I had never thought of that before, but you are right. Isn't it wonderful, too, to know that no family is so poor that it cannot afford Coffee? It is to me. I think of it every time I make up my order. Of all the things I buy, there is nothing that brings as much real, wholesome enjoyment at such small cost as Coffee."

SALVATION ARMY BAND WILL PUT PROGRAM ON AIR

Concert Will Be Broadcast
Between 9 and 10 O'Clock
From Tribune KLX.

The third outdoor band concert to be broadcast by radio from Station KLX, The TRIBUNE, will be sent out tonight between 9 and 10 o'clock, with a select program by the Oakland Salvation Army Band under the direction of Bandmaster A. W. Bryant.

The Oakland Salvation Army Band exists solely for evangelistic purposes. The band has developed, however, much musical ability, and because of its standing as such an organization it was selected to play tonight. Like 25,000 of their fellow bandmen in the Salvation Army service these men receive no remuneration for their services, and refused to accept pay.

The members of the band are Bandmaster A. W. Bryant, F. Cracknell, O. Morris, R. Barnes, Deputy Bandmaster Vaughan, C. Brown, R. Tremblay, T. Park, H. Oakes, P. Cork, W. Vaughan, W. Bales, W. Lovett, and F. Cracknell. Third row (back): E. Cracknell, C. Morris, E. Wall, W. Beckwith, L. Hueston, R. Wall, W. Waite, P. Pederson and E. Beckwith.

Sailor Killed in Boarding Train

RICHMOND, May 18.—Attempting to board Southern Pacific passenger train No. 8, at Rodeo yesterday after he had been ordered off by the conductor, Nicholas Loewende, 31, seaman, missed his hold, fell under the wheels and was ground to death. His body was brought in Richmond today by Coroner Charles J. Donnelly.

Conductor Philbeck, of Oakland, found the sailor riding the blind baggage and ordered him off, and instructed John T. Edwards the porter not to permit Loewende to get back on the train. Edwards saw the sailor trying to swing aboard, miss his hold and fall under the wheels. Edwards found on the body, identified the man as a member of the crew of the steamer Santa Monica which has been in port at Pittsburg for several days.

Come to LAKESHORE HIGHLANDS

This Saturday or Sunday, May 19th and 20th

See the wonderful values in homesites we are offering in this record-breaking

$1,000,000 SALE—$100 Your Share

If you ever hope to own a home, this is your opportunity. A few more crowds like those of last Sunday and these choice lots will all be sold

Here is the Ideal Location—In the center of Oakland's finest residential district, and positively the LAST of the close-in Lakeshore tracts. Only 45 minutes from the Ferry building, San Francisco, and 10 minutes from the heart of Oakland's shopping center, with fast and frequent Key Route electric trains running direct to the property.

NOW IS THE TIME TO BUY—The rolling country in this beautiful residence park gives choice of wonderful locations—hill top, hill side or on the flat—whichever you prefer.

BUY NOW—While the prices and terms are so reasonable; every lot in the park will be RAISED in price at the conclusion of this sale.

PERMANENT RESTRICTIONS insure the increasing value of these homesites.

BRING YOUR FAMILIES and come either Saturday or Sunday. Come as early as possible. We were rushed last week and could not attend to the crowds, and while we will have extra salesmen on hand, the early visitors will have the advantage.

THERE ARE NO RESERVATIONS—Every unsold lot in these properties is on sale at low prices and easy terms.

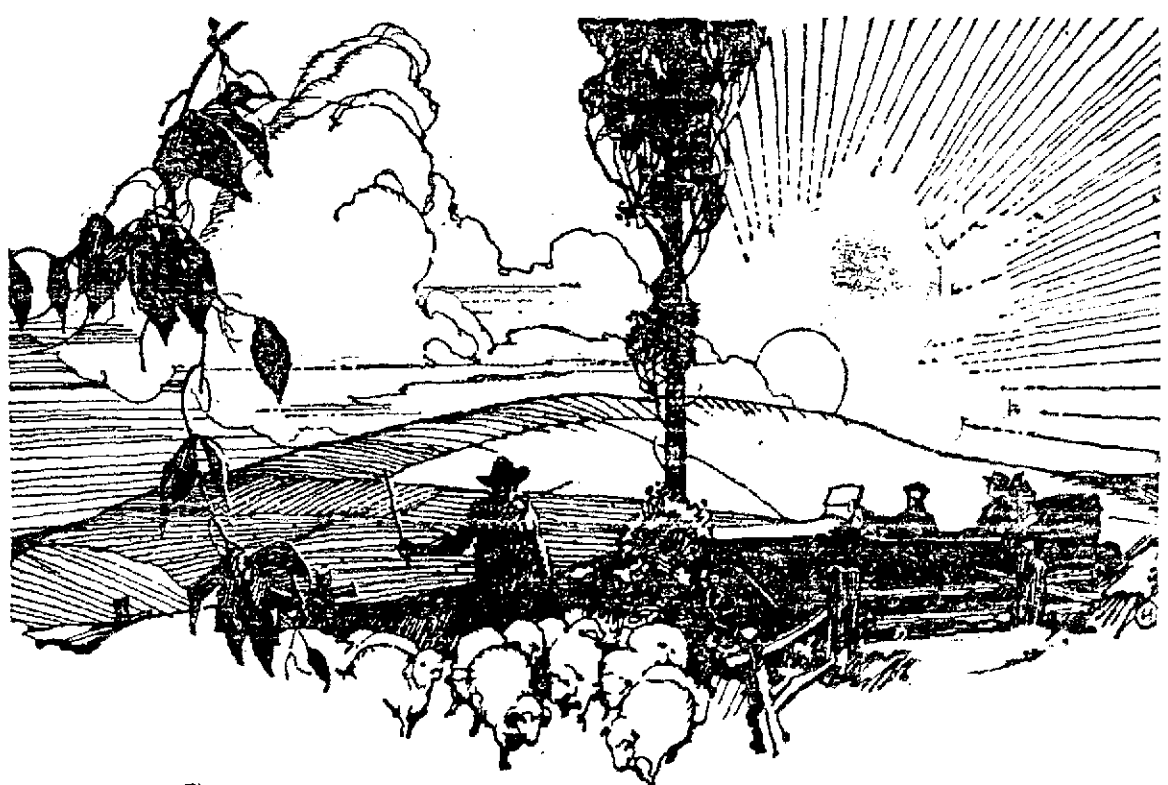

YOU OWE IT TO YOURSELF to see these bargains in homesites—and to see them NOW. They are truly wonderful values, and once these lots are sold, such an opportunity will never be yours again.

PRICES on these lots run from $1500 to $2000 and up. There are hundreds of beautiful homes already erected, and a visit will show the class of neighbors you may expect.

HOW TO REACH LAKESHORE HIGHLANDS—From San Francisco take the Key Route Lakeshore train direct to the property. By Auto—Grand Avenue and Lakeshore Avenue to the entrance gates. By Street Car—Lakeshore Avenue "E" Car to Trestle Glen Road.

Walter H. Leimert Co. Oakland Office on the tract.
Telephone, Lakeside 974.

With its ideal location, rapid transportation, permanent restrictions, all improvements, and the present low prices, Lakeshore Highlands offers the greatest opportunity to the home-seeker in the entire Bay region

The most precious thing in the world

Think what this world would be without confidence that the sun would rise tomorrow!

Without confidence in the order of things, in our fellow men, in our institutions, chaos would reign in the world. There would be no security, no progress, no happiness. Confidence is essential to all that is worth while.

The Truth About the Cost of the Oakland Public Schools

(Is there any truth in reports that the Oakland schools are being operated extravagantly in comparison with those of other cities—and that their overhead expense is unreasonably high?) Superintendent of Schools Frederick M. Hunter says no. Oakland taxpayers are not paying an abnormally high price for the education of their children, and they are getting their money's worth, he declares. He will give his reasons for this statement, supported by facts, figures, and comparisons with other cities, in a series of four articles written for TRIBUNE readers, of which the first appears today. The others will follow in successive issues of THE TRIBUNE.)

By FREDERICK M. HUNTER, Superintendent of Schools.
 The people to whom the schools belong and whose children are being prepared for citizenship therein have a right to know the truth about their management and costs. Many times for political purposes half truths and outright falsehoods are whispered abroad which ultimately result in harm to the schools and the children.
 Oakland's schools are growing rapidly. They require much more for their proper maintenance. Prices are upon a much higher level than they were before the war. Salaries are higher. Supplies and equipment cost more. Consequently it is impossible to operate efficiently a modern school system in this rapidly developing metropolis without a vast expenditure of public funds.
 But is the management of the schools extravagant? Is the "per pupil" cost too high? Is the "overhead" too great? Is a proper proportion spent in classroom instruction? Let us compare the "per pupil" cost (based on average daily attendance) of the Oakland schools with that of other cities of California.

But what of the "overhead" in the Oakland schools? Again let us compare it first with other cities that have good schools and then with private businesses in this community. There have been frequent publications that the "overhead" in Oakland is greater than anywhere else in the country. This is wholly untrue.
 The "overhead" in Oakland is only average, and is exceeded by many other cities that have highly efficient school systems. For instance, Boston, Detroit, Minneapolis and Newark, N. J., may be cited as cities having school systems similar to Oakland and similarly efficient. But the "overhead" of these cities is in each instance much greater in proportion to the total school budget than that of Oakland. REPORT IS CITED.
 Citing the report of the United States Commission of Education for January 1, 1923, it is shown that for 1921-22 the "overhead" for each of these cities was as follows:
 Detroit 4.4%
 Boston 4.0%
 Newark 3.9%
 Minneapolis 3.8%
 The Oakland "overhead" for the same year was 2.9 per cent of the total school budget.

In fact, among the thirty cities of one hundred thousand population and over as listed in the report of the United States Bureau of Education, Statistical Circular No. 1, January 1, 1923, Oakland ranks fourteenth among the thirty cities thus reporting in the proportion of the school budget spent for "overhead".
 Now let us compare the school "overhead" in Oakland with the "overhead" of prosperous business concerns operating here in the city. A large manufacturing plant shows an "overhead" of over 15 per cent; a typical retail and jobbing house shows an "overhead" of 11.5 per cent; while one of Oakland's largest department stores, an "overhead" of almost 6 per cent. It is readily seen that the school "overhead" is less than 3 per cent and is not excessive in comparison with the "overhead" of private businesses. It is further to be remarked that the "overhead" in the Oakland schools is not and never has been less than 2.5 per cent of the total budget.

But a more vital question is: What percentage of the total school budget is devoted directly to instruction in the classroom? Again let us turn to the highest authority in the field on educational matters—the United States Bureau of Education.

(Attendance) of the Oakland schools with that of other cities of California.
 Superintendent of Public Instruction, California shows that among the largest cities of California, Oakland ranks fourth in the "per pupil" cost of its high schools for the school year 1921-22 and eight in the "per pupil" cost of its elementary schools.

The older conception of education has still been kept intact in the school system; namely, emphasis upon thoroughness in the foundation of the children than in any other city reporting to the United States Bureau of Education, with one exception.
 The schools of Oakland continue to require a large and generous support. The people of our American cities have been demanding in recent years a type of education which includes a greatly enlarged service—a service so universal and so broad that it reaches all classes of children, rich and poor, high and low, American and foreign-born alike.

SMART LUGGAGE SHOP IS OPENED ON BROADWAY

Handsomeness Salesrooms Featured in Quality Trunk Co. Establishment.

Oakland's growth as a tourist and travel center gains additional recognition in the opening of a new store at 1310 Broadway by the Quality Trunk Company Saturday, May 19. This store is one of the smartest luggage shops in the west and offers the traveling public most pleasing and artistic salesrooms for selecting their traveling equipment.
No expense has been spared in designing and remodeling the store and it makes a handsome addition to a section of Broadway that has seen many improvements in recent years.

The exterior is metal trimmed with deep show windows, the latter having concealed overhead lighting for evening display and the interior is finished in light-colored woodwork and gray velvet. A velvet panel set against the wall will be used in displaying women's handbags. In order to give the purchaser an opportunity of judging the appearance of the bag in use. Over 1000 candle-power will be used in illuminating the store, the electric lights being concealed in the velvet panels that make every corner of the show rooms as bright as midday. Everything about the store is a real contribution to Oakland's specialty shops. Separate departments have been inaugurated for bags and suitcases, wardrobe trunks, dress and steamer trunks, purses, wallets, bags and other small leather articles.

The opening of this store proves that Friday, the thirteenth, is not an unlucky day, at least for me," declared Carl I. Crew, proprietor.
"For it was Friday, December 13, 1907, that I opened my first retail store in Oakland. I had opened a wholesale business in Oakland the previous year, less than thirty days after the San Francisco fire, having placed orders for immediate delivery while the fire was still raging in San Francisco, receiving the first carload of trunks ordered from a delivered in Oakland following the San Francisco catastrophe. My order must have been somewhat of a novelty as it was to send ten carloads of trunks as rapidly as possible and to fill every trunk with bags and suitcases. For a while I was receiving a carload every ten days and among the shipments I dated and received was a solid carload of leather goods, the first ever shipped into California."

It has always been a policy of the Quality Trunk Company to buy and sell only the best grade of all kinds of luggage and to offer only such merchandise as the store can positively recommend to the buying public. The Quality Trunk Company is exclusive representative in Alameda county for the Hartmann and Indestructo wardrobe trunks.

SEA SCOUTS TO REORGANIZE.
ALAMEDA, May 18.—A reorganization meeting of the Alameda Sea Scouts is to be held in the scout cabin on San Leandro bay tonight, under the auspices of Leonard Hollywood Post No. 823, Veterans of Foreign Wars. The post is sponsoring the sea scout organization in Alameda and assisting in placing it on a firm basis.

New Home for Trunk Shop

The latest lighting and furnishing appointments have been made at the QUALITY TRUNK COMPANY, marking it as one of the up-to-date stores of the city.

Warehouses Being Enlarged For Fruit

WOODLAND, May 18.—Woodland and Madison warehouse companies have let a contract to increase the capacity of their storage facilities to meet the demands of fruit and grain men made upon them this season. Bumper crops, the greatest in the history of the county, are held responsible for the rush to double warehouse space. Brown & Collins ware-housemen of Woodland, have called for an addition to take up feet of concrete, while Stephens warehouse at Madison will use 15,000 feet.

Alameda to Consider Community Chest

ALAMEDA, May 18.—Heads of civil and charitable organizations in Alameda, as well as city officials, will gather in the council chambers Tuesday night, May 22, for the purpose of discussing the advantages of conducting a community chest drive in the city next September. A. W. Porter, well known civic worker in Alameda, will preside as temporary chairman.

According to Porter several speakers who handled the community drives in San Francisco and Oakland last year are expected to appear and enlighten Alameda-dians on the best method of conducting the campaign. At the conclusion of the addresses it is planned to take a vote to decide on the advisability of having the drive or continuing the present method of raising funds for charitable organizations by individual drives.

Summer Camp Sites Chosen by Y.M.C.A.

GROSVILLE, Butte County, May 18.—J. G. Land and M. B. Wilbur have just returned to Oroville from Blairsden where they have been spending the last two days handling a camp site for the Y. M. C. A. camp this year. Secretary Wilbur announces that they have found two very delightful sites near Blairsden. Either one of these is within hiking distance of twenty-six lakes. Both of them may be used.

As the camps this year are to be for Butte, Yuba and Sutter boys and girls, the boys having the first two weeks and the girls the second two weeks, sometime in July, it is expected that applications for the capacity limit of the two camps will be made.

Thirty-six Traffic Violators Cited

GROSVILLE, Butte county May 18.—Eighteen more Oroville motorists have been cited by county Traffic Officer C. C. Bissett to appear before Justice of the Peace Harry S. Hills on charges of violating traffic laws.

Local people cited to appear for disregard of traffic regulations, Bissett having previously named eighteen others.

WOODLAND NEWS

WOODLAND, May 18.—Probation Officer and Mrs. A. A. Powers will go to the Yosemite valley next week to attend the California Service Agency's annual convention.

George Maxwell of Berkeley, is here for a few days visiting his parents, former Mayor and Mrs. J.
O. Maxwell.

Mrs. Nanette Saph. of San Jose, is in Woodland attending her brother, Joseph Wallace, who is critically ill and not expected to live over the week end.

Mrs. C. L. Best, of San Leandro, who has many friends and relatives in Yolo county where she often visits, is the guest of Mrs. Fulton Barnes.

Miss Eva Warner entertained a number of her young companions yesterday in the City Park here on the occasion of her birthday.

MONGRELS GIVEN

NET QUINN INDITEC
I LI JIUM I ILLU

BERKELEY, May 18.—Mongrel yellow curs who never before had any decoration tied to them other than perhaps a tin can, licked their homely chops and grinned at prize winning ribbons on their collars this afternoon at a pet stock show held in conjunction with the Berkeley Merchants and Manufacturers' Fair. For once dog democracy reigns and pampered parlor pets have no higher social standing than the lowly hound. A pet's a pet for all, according to the version of Manager Anthony A.
Trempe.

The show is not all dogs. Every variety of cat, every breed of fowl over to a quackless duck, trained lady bugs, several species of snakes, all kinds of birds, fish and even bull frogs and hop toads are competing for honors, not for class but for companionship.

Judging of the 300 entries started late this afternoon under the direction of Dr. H. H. McNair, city veterinarian. The judges are Herbert Jones, dog; Mrs. A. L. Abbot, cat;
Mrs. R. D. Carr, bird; Dr. J. K. Brown, poultry; Miss Antonio de Grassi, rabbit; Mrs. C. Parrott, Rodeo; Dr.
McNair, ponies, goats and miscellaneous pets. Prizes will be awarded tonight and tomorrow.

Tonight's Community Chest night, Y. M. C. A. night, Camp Fire Girls' night and Girl Scouts' night.
Four four-round boxing bouts will be staged by the Employed Boy Clubs of the Berkeley Y. M. C. A. and some foot races are expected.

Accused of Wrecking Stolen Alameda Car

ALAMEDA, May 18.—Charles Polon, 19 Harold T. Grader, 24, and W. R. Brunel, 42, 24, were arraigned in the Alameda police court before Judge Johnson on a charge of taking a car belonging to W. A. Neak, 1205 Pacific avenue, out of a garage, including in a sex ride and finally wrecking the machine in Oakland last Sunday night.

Preliminary hearing was set for Tuesday afternoon, May 22, at 1:30 o'clock.

CHAPTER TO GIVE DANCE

ALAMEDA, May 18.—Alameda United German Community is arranging for a dance to be given in the auditorium of the Porter school Saturday night, May 26.
The affair will be open to mem-

NEW GRAPE TREES O'HENRY Treasure Trove of Discovered Writings

SPEAKING OF BIG WINDS.

The man with the bronzed face and distinguished air was a great traveler, and had just returned from a tour around the world. He sat around the stove at the hotel and four or five drummers and man-about-town listened with much interest to his tales.

He was speaking of the fierce wind storms that occur in South America, when the house grass of the panama is scattered and blown so flat by the hurricanes that it is cut into strips and sold for the most straw matting. He spoke also of the great intelligence of the wild cat which, he said, although blown about by the furious hurricanes, and compelled to drift for days before the driving floods of the rainy season, never lost their direction by day or night.

"How do they guide themselves?" asked the Tokela flour drummer.

"Oh, by their address, of course," said the traveler.

"I don't see anything to laugh about," said the Kansas man. "But speaking of big winds, have you something of the kind in our state? You've all heard of the Kansas cyclone, but very few of you know what they are. We have plenty of them and some are pretty hard ones, too, but most of the stories you read about them are exaggerated.
Still a good, full grown cyclone can carry things pretty hard, sometimes. I know a fellow named Bob Long who was a real estate hustler from away back. Bob had bought up a lot of prairie land cheap, and was trying to sell it in small tracts for farms and truck patches. One day he took a man in his buggy out to this land and was showing it to him. Just look at it!" he said. "It is the finest, richest piece of ground in Kansas.

Now it's worth more, but to start things off, and get investments to going, I'll sell you 100 acres of this land at $40 per acre."

"Before Bob could say these words a cyclone came along and the sage as it took him up straight into the air. He went up till he was nothing but a black speck and the man stood there and watched him till he was out of sight.
"The man liked the land so he bought it from Bob's heirs, and pretty soon a railroad cut across it and a fine flourishing town sprang up on the spot."

"This man was standing on the sidewalk one day thinking of how lucky he had been, and about Bob's unfortunate fate, when he happened to look up and saw something falling. It grew larger and larger, and finally it turned out to be a man.

"He came tumbling down from the sky like a sack of struck lead, and landed four blocks away, bounded up at least ten feet, came down on his feet and shouted:

"Front foot!"

"It was Bob Long. He heard was a little grayer and bigger, but he was all business still. He had missed the cyclone that had taken place while he was coming down, and when he finished the sentence that had taken place when the cyclone took him up, he altered his language accordingly. Bob was a hustler.
Some time after that he said:
"Never mind," said the traveler, "let's go in and take something out of this one first. I claim the wind time before the next round."

German Colony Will Settle in Yolo County

WOODLAND, May 18.—Preparing for a German colony in the Knights Landing district, Rev. T.
W. Eberhart and Rev. A. J. Conlan, both of Los Angeles, are preparing for a German Methodist church to be stationed there. The pastors are working in harmony with the Armour Packing company, which plans to bring a large number of German agriculturists to settle in Yolo and Sutter counties to develop lands owned by the company in Sutter Basin and Knights Landing.

Tax Expert to Plan Manteca Assessment

MANTECA, May 18.—James G.
Stafford, tax expert, has been employed by the city justices to review the city limits to enable an equitable assessment roll to be compiled. Stafford has assisted 42 cities and towns on the Pacific coast in this work. He is to receive $500 and his expenses. City Clerk Daisy Duvall and Tax Collector F. M. Roundtree will lend him their assistance. The matter of assessments here has caused much complaint for several years.

SCHARRENBURG, WOOD CRITICIZE GOVERNOR'S ACT

Appointment of Bowles As U. C. Regent Stirs Two Protests.

TRIBUNE BUREAU, Sacramento, May 18.—The nullification by Governor Friend W. Richardson of his predecessor's appointment of Dr. John R. Haynes of Los Angeles as a member of the Board of Regents of the University of California, and the replacement of Dr. Haynes' name by that of P. E. Bowles of Oakland, was sharply criticized by Paul Scharrenburg, Federation of Labor, who was recently removed from the State Housing and Immigration Commission by the Governor. Scharrenburg said: "LABOR OK'D HAYNES. The appointment by Governor William D. Stephens of Dr. Haynes as a member of the Board of Regents met with the enthusiastic approval of labor. Dr. Haynes understands the problems of labor, and is in full sympathy with its views. Governor Stephens assured me at the time that this appointment did not need the confirmation of the Senate, and I maintain that his interpretation was the right one. However, it seems to be the policy of Governor Friend W. Richardson to 'pack' the Board of Regents with reactionaries and financial interests."

CRITICIZED BY WOOD. Will C. Wood, superintendent of public instruction, and himself a member of the Board of Regents, said: "Dr. Haynes' appointment on the Board of Regents by Governor Stephens was entirely constitutional and did not require the sanction of the Senate. Governor Richardson's action in nullifying the appointment is entirely unconstitutional." On the motion of Assemblyman Thomas M. Carlson of Richmond, the assembly voted at 1 o'clock this morning to take out of committee the bill of Senator Will H. Sharkey of Martinez, appropriating $165,000 for the purchase of additional land on Mount Diablo. The bill is intended to create a splendid state park on Mount Diablo and to make the grand mountain accessible, without payment of tolls, to all. Assemblyman Badaracco of San Francisco made a last attempt shortly after midnight to revive his resolution memorializing Congress to permit the manufacture and sale of light wines and beer. Though the hour was late, the

BUTTE'S WOMAN BOOTLEGGED FREE

OROVILLE, Butte county, May 18.—Mrs. Mary Barkley, Butte county's first woman bootlegger to serve a jail sentence, is at liberty on probation. It is learned through the office of Sheriff R. N. Anderson.

At the time of her sentence the Butte county W. C. T. U. went on record as recommending to Superior Judge H. D. Gregory that the maximum sentence be passed in her case. Sentence of 90 days in jail and a fine of $500 was given. The fine was paid and Mrs. Barkley served half of her sentence. It is declared. The county probation consists of Sheriff R. N. Anderson, District Attorney William E. Roth and C. W. Toland, city marshal of Oroville.

Vice-Consul For Portugal At Work

SAN LEANDRO, May 18.—San Leandro enjoys the distinction of being the first city in the Eastbay district to have an official representative of the Portuguese nation permanently stationed. He is Joaquim R. da Silva Leite, officially vice-consul of Portugal. He assumed his office about a month ago. Leite is a native of Portugal and speaks many languages fluently. He acted as a professor of languages in the University of Rhode Island prior to coming here. He has moved his family to San Leandro and lives at 134 Sunnyside Drive here.

WOMEN SPEED FANS ARRESTED FOR MAKING 45

WOODLAND, May 18.—Miss Beth Davis of Grimes, Colusa county, and Mrs. Frances M. Miller of Sacramento, were arrested here yesterday by Traffic Officer George Sharpnack for being in too great a rush to reach their respective homes. They were both in an equal hurry and are charged with beating the road at the rate of 45 miles an hour. They are the first women arrested for speeding here this season.

THE GENTLER SEX

London.—Thirty-six London women work as iron-molders, 35 as undertakers, 7 as riveters and 6 as chimney-sweepers.

The United States uses about half of the tin produced in the world.

MASONS TO BURY

Funeral services for Louis Schaffer, former chief of police of Oakland, will be held tomorrow at 2 p. m. from Masonic Temple, Twelfth and Washington streets, under the auspices of Live Oak lodge.

Schaffer died yesterday at Meritt hospital. A year ago he was admitted to an operation from which he never fully recovered. The last illness, however, was not considered critical, and he was believed to be convalescing sufficiently to return to his home, 2319 Park Boulevard, within a few days. Prominent in local civic affairs and public life for many years, Schaffer was widely known throughout Alameda county. He was born in New York in 1854. He has been identified with the Masonic order and with the Woodmen of the World. A widow and two sons, Arthur of Oakland, survive.

Bootlegger Fined $200, Sent to Jail

OROVILLE, Butte county May 18.—Lee Price, of Chico, charged with violation of the prohibition laws, pleaded guilty to three counts, possessing a still, possessing intoxicating liquor and manufacturing intoxicating liquor, in the superior court here Wednesday afternoon. Price waived time of sentence and was given a fine of $200, $100 each on the first two counts, and sentenced to six months in the county jail on the third count. He had not furnished bail and was remanded to the custody of the sheriff.

FEDERATION TO HOLD TRACK AND FIELD MEET

PETALUMA BALL TEAM COMES HERE TOMORROW TO PLAY ALAMEDA

Alameda High And Petaluma Try for Honors

Game in the Championship Series Scheduled for Lincoln Park.

Alameda high's chance to climb a step nearer to the state baseball championship will be on hand tomorrow afternoon at Lincoln park in Alameda, when Coach Rittler's aggregation stacks up against the prep team from Petaluma. According to word received from the up-state burg, a large delegation of rooters will arrive in time to lend their voices in support of their favorites. Petaluma has one of the best high school teams that has represented the institution in years, only finishing when he stopped the San Francisco lad in eight rounds in the east. Willie was given one fine wallop on that occasion and Leonard proved decisively that he was a worthy master. Now, four years later, Willie wants to try it all over again. Wonder if Willie has been playing a little poker with this boys?

Ritchie and Duffy Match Is Impossible.

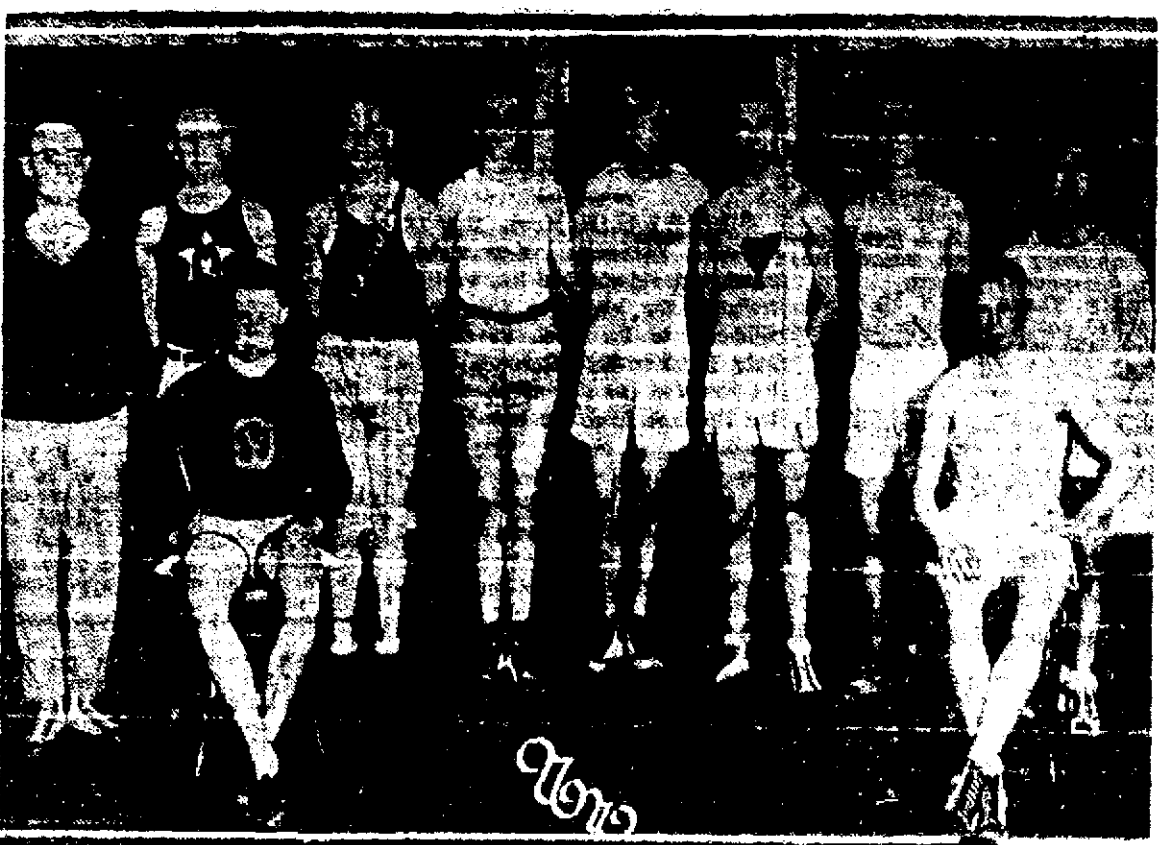

Talk of a Willie Ritchie-Jimmy Duffy match at the Auditorium is waste of time. Ritchie wants to get the big money right from the start and if he can't get Leonard into the ring with him he'll tackle Tiedler, Freedman or some other eastern boxer and the fight will take place in an eastern ring. Duffy, in his present form, would be a topheavy favorite over the same lightweight champion and Willie is too smart to take a chance with the Oakland boy for the kind of medals that are dealt in this part of the country. Instead of breaking back into the game again because he has heard of the big purses being paid eastern fighters, an ordinary pair of lightweights or welterweights draw twenty or thirty thousand dollars while the topheavy get that amount for their respective "hits" and no matter how Ritchie feels about it the general public, or that portion of it that follows the boxing game, realizes that Willie Ritchie has shot his bolt and is no longer a contender for any kind of title.

Colima and Duffy Can't Get Together.

The fans would like to see a Colima-Duffy bout but there is little chance of the pair getting together. Colima says he would like to fight the local boy and Duffy tells him to go make a reasonable weight. Just what James considers a "reasonable" weight has not been made public and is not likely to be as they are both scale-shy. When Colima boxed in New York the best he could do was 155 pounds but he was certainly much lighter Wednesday evening when he met Jack Reeves. Colima probably did not weigh more than 155 for Reeves, and is much fiercer than when he boxed here a few months ago. Duffy has been a legitimate welterweight for a long time and he is not inclined to take on much flesh. Also Jimmy works out every day whether he has a match in sight or not and he keeps his weight down that way. The boys had a hot argument over the respective merits of the pair down at the match-making parlors the other day. Jimmy Dundee was willing to wager a "grand" at catch-weight, taking Duffy. Max Sert was willing to give odds for as much and Tom Doid also offered to back James and let the boys mingle in the gymnasium. Colima's manager, defined with thanks and the argument ended with an ultimatum from T. Simpson that bets and betting chatter must be eliminated.

Oakland Y. M. C. A. Track Aggregation

Gibbons Gained Fame By Stopping Baggemaster

Tommy Punches Promoter's Meal-ticket Full of Holes, But He Breaks Into the Pugilistic Limelight By Doing It.

By HENRY L. FARRELL, (United Press Staff Editor)

NEW YORK, May 18 (United Press)—Tommy Gibbons got his first start as a boxer by knocking out one of the best meal-tickets I had back about ten years ago when I was running the Fairmount Athletic Club. Billy Gibson, who is now managing Henry Leonard and Gene Tunney, tells me: "I picked up a big railroader who had been hanging around looking for work and put him on a preliminary one night. His name was Tommy Nelson, but he was such a picturesque fellow that I wanted some kind of a trick name for him and I sent him in just as 'The Baggemaster'." "He was a tremendous hit. He fought like a truck driver and put so much Jack London stuff in his work that he became the biggest drawing card we had. Every time he was on the card, the Baggemaster used to pack the house. Business was fine as he wasn't costing much and we didn't have to arrange a high-priced main bout when he was fighting."

Three years ago, Gibbons was asked if he had aspirations for the heavyweight championship and he was emphatic in his answer that such was his ambition. "I am not going to try for any speed records," he told the writer. "It is my plan to go slowly, learn a lot and make every movement with that ambition foremost in my mind. I am not going to bother Dempsey with challenges until I feel sure that I am ready, and when that time arrives I am sure that I will get my chance and that I will make the most of it. I will use the best of those conditions. I will have the satisfaction of knowing that Gibbons, at his very best, was not good enough to win the championship and I will be willing to accept it as an honor. After he had been touched for the big fight of his career, Tommy said: "Everyone has the ambition to reach the top in his chosen line. I have long had my hope to become the heavyweight champion and at last I have won my chance. They tell me Dempsey is one of the most powerful hitters in the ring but he has no different opinion of me. They tell me I am a better boxer than Dempsey and I believe I am, but I am going to do some fighting, too."

Tom has since said the first indication that he possessed a good punch was as much a surprise to him as it was to Gibbons and the Baggemaster. Always of a sturdy build, Gibbons started to figure out the reasons for knockouts and such and he delved into anatomy with a surgeon friend. He picked out a blow, delivered with a hook at short range under the ribs of each side, and most of his prominent knockouts have resulted from the use of this weapon. He prefers to use it with the left hand, but he is also adept with his right hand to the same spot. Gibbons, like Dempsey, was of body build and he has worked out and perfected an attack to the body that is not inferior even to that of the champion.

FASTEST AND CLEVEREST

The lessons in boxing and footwork that were picked up from his work with Mike have been a most valuable asset for him since he developed the knack of hitting properly and accurately, and it is generally admitted that he is the fastest and cleverest.

Stage Is All Set For Running of Kentucky Derby

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 18.—An impressive array of police talent has been arranged to safeguard the thousands of spectators for the forty-ninth running of the Kentucky Derby Saturday. The local force will be augmented by a special corps of sixty detectives made up by a lay of two each from thirty of the larger cities throughout the country. It was learned.

With the goal at Churchill Downs in far from its best condition but with the classic just around the corner a large class of derby students was on hand today to watch efforts of the candidates. The Clowen, the Audley farm stables' eligible, covered the one and a quarter mile derby route in 2:10 4-5. Louis Marshall sent Prince K. the full route in 2:11 2-5 driving. Vigil, Prentiss' winner, and W. J. Salmon's derby candidate, was sent over a mile and one quarter this afternoon in 2:18 2-5 and pulled up breathing easily. Ticketster, class candidates from the Harry Payne Whitney stables, covered the same distance in 2:09 2-5.

L. A. Tracksters to Start For Chicago

LOS ANGELES, May 18.—Twenty-one high school athletes and three coaches will leave here tonight for Oakland, on the way to the national interscholastic track and field championships at the University of Chicago May 25 and 26. Six northern California athletes will join the squad at Oakland. They expect to arrive at Chicago May 23.

Howard Kinsey Is Winner in Northwest

TACOMA, Wash., May 18.—Howard Kinsey, of San Francisco, defeated Wallace Scott, of Tacoma, 6-4, 8-6 in an exhibition tennis match here. Paired with Dick Van Der Laa of Seattle, Kinsey defeated Scott and Van Dyke Johns, also of Seattle, 11-9, 7-5, in a doubles match. An extra doubles set was played and Scott and Johns won 6-2.

FAST RUNNERS AND FIELD MEN ENTERED IN FEDERATION MEET

Stars of Industrial Plants Will Vie With Club Men In Annual Track and Field Meet of the Northern California Federation.

Entries for the second annual Athletic Federation Track and Field Meet, which is scheduled for California Field tomorrow at 1:30 p. m. closed with W. F. Hansen, chairman of the athletic committee with over 200 entries.

There are entries from the Retail Athletic Association, Business Men's Association of San Francisco, Industrial Association of Oakland, from all the Sunday schools and church athletic associations around the Bay, play ground and recreation associations of Berkeley, American Legion, Eastbay Basketball League, Berkeley Basketball League, all the Bay City Y. M. C. A.'s.

Red Dreyer, former popular yell leader of California University, has entered a strong team from the Retail Athletic Association of San Francisco. "Red" says he is especially interested in this meet because it is not primarily for a few athletic stars of known ability. Younger athletes, a great many who have not been trained in school or college competition recently, are meeting a new awakening in sport under the administration of this body.

The committee in charge announced that the meet will be promptly on schedule time as a large entry list in every event will require several heats and many trials. There will be at least three good teams from Berkeley in the meet. The "Y" is going to make a desperate effort to repeat its performance of last year and win the meet. They will be represented by the following men: Clarence Williams, Leonard Bryant, R. E. Ball, H. C. Newberry, O. T. Kellogg, W. B. Curran, W. D. Tompkins, J. L. Wilson, C. R. Watts, Jr., Floyd Johnson, W. K. Knowlton, M. M. Morrison, Harold Larsen, George Hilt, Hoyt Wood and Walter Smith.

The Live Oak playground will also have a strong team and have high hopes. They will be represented by the following fellows: Brown Zarley, Seth McKenna, Marvin Martin, Eugene Hurling, Ford Wesel, Linton Pratt, Chambers, Don Koch, Philip Cook, Elias Pond, Don Brewer, George Byrne, George Cannon, John Clumey and Lulu. In addition to these two teams, H. R. Thompson, Industrial Secretary of the Berkeley Y. M. C. A. has gathered a few former stars now in Berkeley factories to represent the Berkeley Trade and Industrial Athletic Association. He anticipates having a twelve-man team in the field.

Buyers of Stock Awaiting Turn for Firmer Prices

BUSINESS AND FINANCE

By H. S. SCOTT.

Indecisive price movements characterized today's opening dealings in the stock exchange. Heavyness was again apparent in the copper and chemical shares, but the initial losses were limited to fractions. American Can advanced a point and U. S. Steel 3-8, but Studebaker and Union Pacific yielded small fractions. Good buying power again was noted in People's Gas, which added nearly a point to its previous 4-point gain this week.

When the overnight selling orders had been disposed of, prices strengthened materially. Copper shares recovered all or part of their early losses and a good demand was noted for most of the equipment stocks and oils. American Locomotive and American Brake Shoe and Foundry each advanced one point, and Baldwin 3-4. Underwood Typewriter jumped 6 points to 150, a new top. Brooklyn Edison climbed 3 1/2 points, General Cigar 2, May Department Stores 1 1/2, and Stewart-Warner Speedometer 1. Matheson Aircraft dropped 1/2 point to 11 1/2, and American Cotton Oil slipped off fractionally to a new low. The traditional "selling on the good news" followed the announcement of two extra dividends of 50 cents each on Planchman Yeast, which dropped a point. Foreign exchanges opened easier. Demand sterling was unchanged at 162 1/2. French francs dropped a point to 65 cents, and German marks dropped to 16 1/2 cents, having a point of the extreme low for all time, selling at 16 1/2 cents.

Trading was unusually quiet during the morning and new buying was largely restricted to the copper and chemical shares, but heavy buying prevailed for various public utilities and tobacco stocks. Operations on the long side were higher by liquidations of many high-priced specialties. Many chemical issues established new low figures for the year, among them Virginia Carolina Chemical common and preferred, Davidson Chemical preferred and Allied Chemical, the net losses ranging from 1/2 to 5 points. Call money opened at 4 1/2.

In the early afternoon representative shares fluctuated feebly, but they made a good showing in the face of the acute weakness of many low-priced stocks. Steel, oil, and tobacco leaders were strong, including Gulf States Steel, Anaconda, American Smelting, Cuban Cane Sugar preferred, International Paper, Tobacco Products A and B, and Tobacco. But speculators were unwilling to be freed by the uncertainties surrounding the business outlook.

Nearly all the industrial issues on the New York stock market today showed a steady tone, but changes in most of the usually active stocks were to slightly lower levels, reflecting an absence of heavy demand and a moderate amount of liquidation.

The feature of the petroleum group was heavy selling of International Petroleum, about 15,000 shares being thrown on the market. The foreign oil group showed a decline of 1/2 to 1 1/2. Standard Oil issues held steady, heaviest trading being in Standard of Indiana, which showed only small change. Vacuum Oil ranged from 4 1/2 to 4 3/4. Marathon yielded slightly. Independent oil stocks showed little change, dealings in most of them being on a small scale. Mining and metal stocks were generally steady. The copper issues made a moderate response to the advance in the metal. Cortez Silver showed a firm tone, following reports of recent developments.

While investment bonds continued firm today's early dealings, numerous speculative issues among the industrials slumped with the lower stock prices. The chemical issues were sold freely, the 7 1/2s with warrant dropping six to the two and the 7 1/2s one and one-half. American Cotton Oil 5s were of 3, International Agricultural Corporation 5s 1 1/2, American Cultural 7 1/2s 2 1/2, and Winchester Arms 7 1/2s and Cerro de Pasco 8s, one each.

UPWARD TREND IN SILKS COMES TO SUDDEN HALT

Price Drops to 35 Cents Below High of Season; Cotton Is Cause.

NEW YORK, May 18.—The upward movement of silk prices has halted and the raw product today is 35 cents a pound below the high mark of this year. The fluctuation of the raw cotton market is held largely responsible for this, they insist, always follows the trend of the cotton market. The cotton movement is continued and does not represent merely brief temporary fluctuations.

8 Warehouses Are Reported Sugar Filled

CHICAGO, May 18.—(By Associated Press.)—Eight Chicago warehouses today are reported to be filled with sugar.

BRITISH PUBLIC EAGER FOR A-1 BOND OFFERINGS

Coal Exports Reach High Figure; Idle Shipping Is Showing Decrease.

WASHINGTON, May 15.—British budget receipts for the first four weeks of the present fiscal year totaled £166,666,000 while expenditures were £162,933,000. The floating debt on April 28 was £190,350,000. The market is easy but interest rates are not declining. The government continues to be especially true of the new issues is increasing. Most of the new issues are now successful, but investors appear to be more discriminating. New capital issues for the first four months of 1923 were £1,000,000,000, or less than half of the total amount of £2,000,000,000 of this amount, £1,000,000,000 was domestic and £1,000,000,000 for foreign countries and British possessions.

NEW YORK AT OUTS WITH LASKER IN REGARD TO DOCK

Commission Will Refuse the Space to Leviathan If Ship Contract Is Lost.

NEW YORK, May 17.—Controversy over the giant liner Leviathan broke out anew today when the Sinking Fund Commission threatened to withhold Manhattan docking space for the steamship unless Chairman Lasker of the United States shipping board reconsidered his decision not to award the Brooklyn navy yard the contract for reconditioning the President Buchanan.

At the same time, the International Mercantile Marine and the Cunard line, both operating large liners, filed protest with the commission against the granting of pier 58 to the operators of the Leviathan. They pointed out that the Leviathan was but one of five ships requiring 1000-foot piers and that they were facing the loss of the Chelsea piers, where they had docked their own liners for years. They requested that no plan be considered until provision was made for all.

The city's action in withholding approval for pier space for the Leviathan resulted from the failure of the Brooklyn navy yard to receive the contract for reconditioning the President Buchanan. The navy yard, it was pointed out, had a bid of $400,000 lower than any other, but the contract was awarded to a Newport News shipbuilding concern. It was pointed out that the loss of the contract would result in the ousting of 2000 navy yard workers, some of whom already have been released.

The shipping board recently chose New York for docking the world's largest ship, although it had used an army pier in Hoboken during the war. Hoboken officials attempted to induce the government to continue to dock there, but shipping board officials held that the Leviathan would be badly handicapped in competition with other ships of compelled to dock on the Jersey side of the harbor.

Navy Is Sending Aviators With Planes to North To Locate Air and Naval Bases in Alaska; Rear Admiral in Command.

SAN DIEGO, Cal., May 17.—The Ohio Cuyamaca, carrying a special detachment of naval aviators and two Davis-Douglas torpedo planes, departed today for an expedition to locate air and naval bases in Alaska waters. The expedition of which the Cuyamaca will be part, included a mine sweeper and a coast guard cutter and will be under command of Rear Admiral Jehu T. Chace, who has been instructed by the navy department to make a comprehensive survey of the Alaskan coast and to recommend locations for naval and aircraft operating bases. Many photographs will be taken.

The Cuyamaca will be joined by the mine sweeper and coast guard cutter at Seward. It is believed that the craft will be in northern waters at least six months.

HAVE THEY A CANOE PARKING ORDINANCE?—Traffic problems certainly are tangled in this part of the country. Freshets in northern New England have caused damage running into millions of dollars. Here is a view of the flooded Daniel Webster Highway at Concord, New Hampshire.

SENTENCED DEATH CAR DRIVERS TO PRISON—Judge John Monaghan, Philadelphia judge, who has sentenced two persons to prison for taking a life by reckless driving. He sentenced Henry G. Brock, banker, to the Eastern penitentiary for from six to eight years for causing the death of three persons with his car. More recently he sentenced John J. Crendon to practically the same term for killing a young girl with his auto. —Keystone Photo.

NEW CIRCULAR MOLESKIN WRAP—Full length, circular cut cape of moleskin, hem-line cut in scallops; black satin hat trimmed with black glycerin ostrich. Worn by Mary Philbin, Universal leading woman.

THESE ARE REAL "SAND MEN"—They are made of a fine sand found only in Europe. They are two of a group of half a dozen statuettes imported from Switzerland, which ornament the lawn of a Piedmont estate. Thirty inches high, the figures represent a Swiss soldier and a burgomaster reading a long proclamation. —Photo by Louis Allen

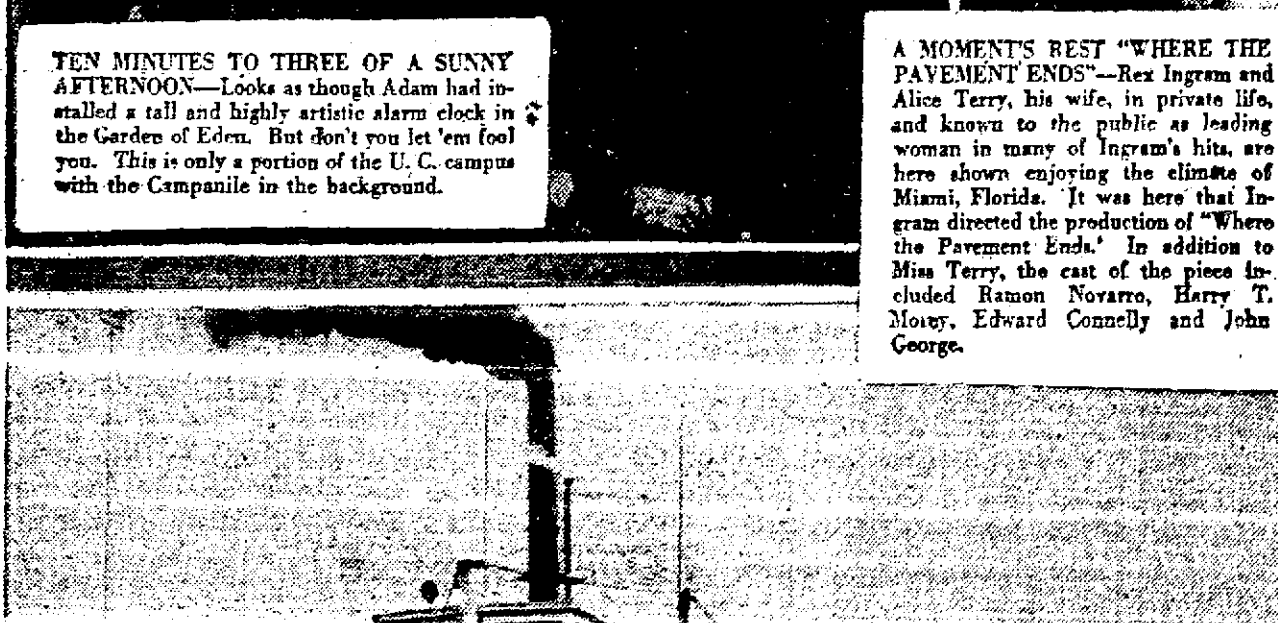

TEN MINUTES TO THREE OF A SUNNY AFTERNOON—Looks as though Adam had installed a tall and highly artistic alarm clock in the Garden of Eden. But don't you let 'em fool you. This is only a portion of the U. C. campus with the Campanile in the background.

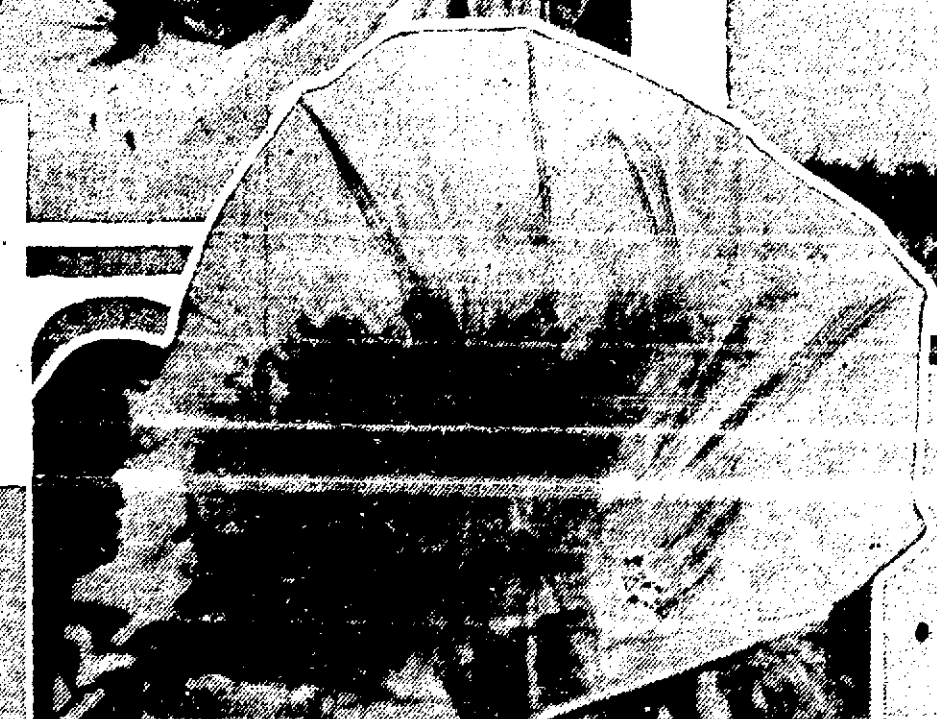

A MOMENT'S REST "WHERE THE PAVEMENT ENDS"—Rex Ingram and Alice Terry, his wife, in private life, and known to the public as leading woman in many of Ingram's hits, are here shown enjoying the climate of Miami, Florida. It was here that Ingram directed the production of "Where the Pavement Ends." In addition to Miss Terry, the cast of the piece included Ramon Novarro, Harry T. Morey, Edward Connelly and John George.

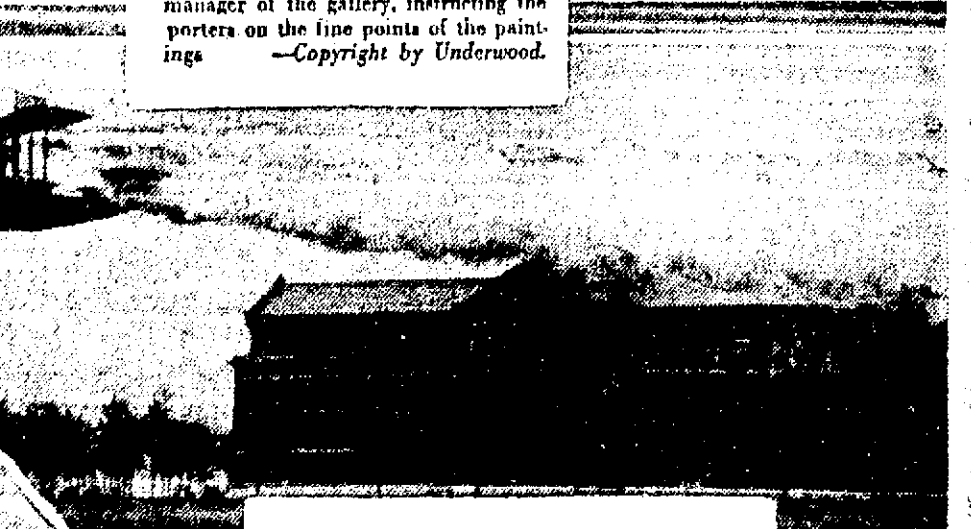

BAG "TOTERS" STUDY ART—An art gallery has been installed in the Grand Central Terminal in New York and the man who "totes" your bag will be able to answer any sort of questions on art. Here we have W. W. Wiseman, assistant manager of the gallery, instructing the porters on the line points of the paintings. —Copyright by Underwood.

THE GIRL IN PEARL GRAY—Her quiet colors draw many admiring glances in her direction. It is made entirely of pearl-gray taffeta, trimmed with bow of gray mouse ribbon and rose-color feather fancy. Fur scarf of platinum fox. Worn by Gladys Walton, Universal Star.

GIRL STUDENT DRIVER ACCUSED OF RECKLESSNESS

BERKELEY, May 18.—As a result of an accident yesterday afternoon at Milvia and Vine streets, in which one woman was injured and two houses damaged, Miss Margaret Taylor, 15, student at the Anna Head school, is accused of reckless driving. Miss Taylor must appear to explain why she did not have control of her machine and why she did not possess an operator's card. She is declared also to have been traveling at an excessive rate of speed.

Mrs. Marion St. John, 1501 Milvia street, was the woman who was injured by Miss Taylor's car. She was moving the lawn in front of her home when Miss Taylor's car careened across the sidewalk and knocked her down. Miss Taylor is declared to have made a desperate effort to control her machine. The car, instead, crashed into the steps of the St. John residence, and from there traveled across the lawn into an adjoining house.

Miss Taylor stopped to render assistance to Mrs. St. John, and then hastened on to Miss Head's school to attend to commencement exercises. Policeman A. P. Lee later took her into custody at the school. Mrs. St. John suffered severe cuts and bruises and a possible fractured leg.

Australian to Support Miss
Anglin in Play

Hippolytus is dead! Long live Hippolytus!

This adaptation of the ancient Greek play is now the order of the day among the devotees of Greek dramatic art.

Robert Warwick has resigned from the cast and incidentally the title role of "Hippolytus," which is to be presented by Margaret Anglin at the Greek theater on May 25.

But the plans for the presentation will not be halted because of the withdrawal of the star. Miss Anglin has replaced him by Boyd Irwin, a young Australian actor, who will play Hippolytus to her Phaedra.

Word came from Los Angeles today, via Miss Anglin's press agent, that Irwin, who has been in pictures recently, had joined the Greek theater company now in rehearsal in the south.

Meanwhile, Warwick, who withdrew from the Anglin entourage because he was not given sufficient publicity is preparing for his role in "Medea," which is to be presented by Henry Miller in San Francisco with Blanche Bates in the title role.

JUNIORS STAGE DANCE

RICHMOND, May 18.—The Juniors of Richmond Union High school will be hosts this evening at the annual dance tendered to the seniors.

TESTIMONY OF DAUGHTER GETS MOTHER FINED

Testimony of her 16-year-old daughter today cost Mrs. Esterling Marchidini a fine of $100 for bootlegging, just as she was on the point of escaping punishment.

During a hearing of Mrs. Marchidini's case yesterday, Police Judge William J. Hennessy gained the impression that she was a widow and the sole support of a 16-year-old daughter, whom she was endeavoring to educate in high school, and of another daughter who was blind. Although she had been convicted of violating the Wright Act at her restaurant, 391 Broadway, he determined to give her probation.

In order to make a complete investigation, he resumed the case yesterday, placing the 16-year-old daughter on the stand. She testified that her father was living and earning about $3 a day. It was then discovered that the father, Joe Marchidini, had been arrested for bootlegging on May 1, and that the parents had used the 16-year-old daughter as a waitress to serve the liquor to their customers.

Judge Hennessy changed his mind about probation, and fined Mrs. Marchidini $100.

HEALTH CENTER
BE LAID SATURDAY

ALAMEDA, May 18.—Elaborate ceremonies will attend the laying of the corner stone of the new $250,000 health center of Alameda, which is being erected on Santa Clara avenue between Oak and Walnut streets. The ceremonies will be held at 2:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

The program for the laying of the stone is to be conducted by the Alameda lodge of Elks, assisted by the drill teams of No. 171 and San Francisco No. 3.

United States Senator Samuel M. Shortridge will be the principal speaker, with greetings being extended by E. K. Taylor, former mayor of Alameda, and prayer by Rev. Henry U. Squires, pastor of the Christ Episcopal church.

Prior to the ceremonies there will be a parade through the business section of Alameda in which will participate an escort of police, more than 200 Boy Scouts, a detachment from the Elks lodge, the Kiwanis club and various civic and fraternal organizations in the city and the Big Brotherhood Boys' Band of Oakland, the Glee club and the orchestra of the Alameda high school. Arrangements for the parade are being handled by a committee composed of Robert Valleau, chairman, assisted by Al Latham and E. K. Taylor.

Order of exercises is as follows: Flag raising; opening ceremony—Alameda lodge of Elks; Homer Spencer, exalted ruler, presiding; "Cavalier's Rusticans," Alameda High School Glee Club; Green-Green-Hon, Frank Olin, mayor of Alameda; March of the War Priests from "Athletes"; Laying of the corner stone; "Star Spangled Banner"; Dix Brotherhood Band.

Responses: "The Shell Fand" His Contralto solo; "The Shell Fand" His Flock; Elks Santa Clara.

Address—Hon. Samuel M. Shortridge.

Prayer—Rev. Henry U. Squires.

Closing ceremony.

March from "The Shell Fand" Verdi High School Orchestra.

OPIUM DEN FOR 30 IS LOCATED IN MOUNTAIN VIEW

SAN FRANCISCO, May 18.—An opium smoking den in the heart of the Santa Clara Valley, at Mountain View, comfortably equipped for thirty patrons, was discovered by Federal Narcotic agents late last night, and the alleged proprietor, Lee Sing, alias Wong Kim Doo, was placed in the county jail here today. Drugs to the value of $5000, with pipes and other opium smoking apparatus, were confiscated.

Tracing addicts from San Jose and San Francisco, inspectors A. A. Elliott, A. W. Roberts and Charles Wiltosman, captured Lee appearing in the guise of purchasers. They found morphine and cocaine and opium and complete den and couches and other facilities.

Lena's Letters,
Spanking Threat
Lead to Divorce

"I love you and always will, even if I never get you. I suppose your dear little wife will bring on to you for a while. I always told you it was not so easy, but it doesn't make any difference how long it will take. Just be nice to yourself so that you can come back to me pretty."

The above letter was introduced in evidence before Superior Judge J. S. Koford today in the divorce suit of Frances Altergott of Hayward, against Henry Altergott, the wife being granted a decree of divorce.

Mrs. Altergott declared that her husband received many letters from "Lena," whom she described as a resident of Manitoba, Canada.

The wife charged cruelty, alleging that her husband had threatened to go out with other men. These charges were unfounded, she said.

Mrs. Altergott said that her husband frequently spanked their small baby, and when she objected he threatened to spank her also.

Women Voters Pick
List of Officers

Mrs. Frank H. Boren of Oakland was elected president of the California Civic League of Women Voters, Northern Section, at the annual convention this morning at Trinity Hall, Berkeley. Officers who were elected to serve with her on the board of directors are:

Vice-presidents, Mrs. J. G. Kearney of Alameda, Mrs. Alfred McLaughlin of San Francisco and Mrs. Josephine Rand Rogers of San Jose; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Carl Williams of Oakland; recording secretary, Miss E. Pearl Cam of Berkeley; treasurer, Miss Alice Bird of San Francisco; auditor, Mrs. T. H. Dell, Hayward; parliamentarian, Mrs. A. E. Thurston of Oakland.

Annual reports of the retiring officers and department chairmen were presented this morning. The afternoon session will be given over to a review of the annual convention of the National League of Women Voters, held in Des Moines, Iowa, last month. Mrs. C. B. Whitely, retiring president, presided at this morning's session.

Milk Bacteriologist Chosen For Oakland

Because of the expansion of the milk industry in the city, Arthur L. Mitchell was today appointed city milk bacteriologist to test the samples of milk taken from the large number of dairies selling in Oakland.

Mitchell was formerly at Letterman Hospital and for some time was bacteriologist for the East Bay Milk Producers' Association.

Tribune Employees Always Have Proper Credentials

INQUIRIES which have been made at various apartment houses and similar establishments regarding rents, services, etc., by persons presenting themselves as investigators for The TRIBUNE have no connection in fact with The TRIBUNE. This paper is conducting no such investigation.

In this respect The TRIBUNE wishes to warn its patrons once more that its employees are supplied with proper credentials which they will be glad to show at any time upon request. Wherever patrons are approached by persons purporting to be from The TRIBUNE it is requested that they demand to see these credentials if there is any doubt as to the visitor's authority.

JUNIOR ELKS ELECT.

Fort Sumner in Charlestown harbor was fired upon April 12, 1861.

Barrel House Wins.

RICHMOND, May 18.—The Barrel House batters found their opponent's pitchers for ten safe hits and piled up nine runs in seven innings in their game with the Mechanics yesterday afternoon. Steen-Graves held the losers to five hits, one of which was a homer by Hockett. The batteries were Steen-Graves and Humphreys for the Barrel House; Hockett, Dimmock and Stanage for the Mechanics.

Enos Says Money Can't Buy Anything Better

Declares Tanlac Quickly Ended Long-Standing Stomach Trouble, Weakness, and Dizziness. He Is Feeling Fine Now.

"Speaking from my own experience, I don't think money can buy a better medicine than Tanlac. It has simply meant good health to me and I can recommend it to anyone." Is the characteristic statement of J. J. Enos, 55 Jackson St., San Francisco. Mr. Enos was for many years in the hotel business here but is now retired, and is well-known and respected by a large circle of friends.

"For over a year before I took the Tanlac treatment I suffered with indigestion and constipation, and got so run-down and worn out that I was just dead on my feet, so to speak. My food disagreed with me, never seemed to do me a particle of good, and the gas bloated me up after eating until it was about all I could stand. I had to be taking something all the

NEW TUNNEL
JUST COMPLETED
BANDIT HULUS UP SERVICE STATION

GROVELAND, May 18.—Another long section of tunnel has just been completed in the fetch Hetchy water project, the headings of the Early Intake and the South Fork Intake having many hundred feet underground practically perfect in alignment, although surveys were made under adverse circumstances.

A bandit freed W. A. Murphy, attendant at an oil station, East Fourteenth street and Avenue 14, to turn over to him the day's receipts. Murphy was making out his report for the day when the hold-up man covered him with a revolver and took $23 from the cash register. Murphy resides at 2042 Clinton avenue, Alameda.
